Jesus was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white.

I looked at my calendar to see if there was something special going on this weekend, like a school or parish event or celebration, a solemnity or feast of the church or something. “Nothing special,” I said. Then I came to realize that this is special weekend for all of us and I am excited to be given the chance to witness again the generosity of our parishioners. It’s our ARCHDIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL (AAA) weekend where each household is asked to make a special effort to give a proportionate gift to support the work of the Church.

I am still overwhelmed by last year’s AAA result. It was a smashing success with more participation and contributions from the previous year. The exciting and amazing thing is that in the previous year (2016), our goal was only $59,157 and we made it with a surplus of $4,051 given back to us. Last year (2017), the goal was increased to $62,884 and we still made it and with even a higher surplus of $11,522. The simple explanation is a better participation rate and increasing contributions. There was an increase in the households that participated, from 172 to 188 and the number of households who participated in the 1% Club also increased, from 50-55.

This year we have been given another opportunity to be even more generous as our goal has increased to $66,137, just a little over three thousand dollars more from last year. Even though our goal has increased, we are keeping the 1% club membership donation at $600, even though I know some are contributing more than what is required.

I am looking forward to more families participating this year. I am looking more at the whole parish’s involvement, rather than how much you can give individually. Big or small, you can join us, a part of this one mystical body of Christ.

One of the many benefits we get from the AAA is the support for our retired priests. We have a retired priest-bishop living with us. Remember to greet Bishop Ignatius Wang on his 84th birthday this Tuesday, February 27th. He has been a great support to the parish all these years and especially now with Fr. Simon on a months’ vacation.

Our parishioner Will Casey has started putting new grass in front of our Pastoral Center. Thank you to Will and to Janet Potts (HN ’76), his associate, for all your efforts. The old grass had died from the drought last year. Looks like we might have another drought this year, hopefully not worse than last year, so we can keep the grass growing. Regardless, we will again be asked to save water. This brings me back to our dear Bishop Wang’s burlesque advise: “SAVE WATER, DRINK WINE!”

Somebody said that the secret of enjoying a good bottle of wine is this: 1. Open the bottle to allow it to breathe. 2. If it doesn’t look like it’s breathing, give it a mouth-to-mouth.

People say that drinking milk makes you strong. Drink 5 glasses of milk, and then try to move the wall. You can’t right? Now drinking 5 bottles of wine. My friend, I tell you… The WALL MOVED ALONE, BY ITSELF! (Proven by an expert!)

“A small step forward does not promise a perfect tomorrow, but it moves our life a step away from a past that we wish to leave behind. A flawed past does not mean that we are no longer able to create a beautiful life.”

If GOD doesn’t move our mountain, let’s ask HIM strength for us to climb it.

LENTEN REFLECTION:
A Time for Prayer
"the first element in our Lenten spiritual journey is prayer. Prayer is the strength of the Christian and of every person who believes. In the face of so many wounds that hurt us and could harden our hearts, we are called to dive into the sea of prayer, which is the sea of God's boundless love, to taste God's tenderness. Lent is a time of prayer, a more intense prayer, more prolonged, more assiduous, more able to take on the needs of the brethren and by intercessory prayer to intercede before God for the many situations of poverty and suffering."

Prayers please! We ask our faith community to continue to pray for our brothers and sisters who are on their Journey of Faith towards the sacraments of Christian Initiation on Easter Vigil. Two adults are receiving Confirmation, four are in the Rite of Christian Initiation for Children and Youth (RCICY), one two year old child will be baptized. The Lenten period of purification and enlightenment is a centerpiece in their spiritual journey. It is a time of reconciliation, prayer, and spiritual renewal, not only for them but for the whole parish.

Lenten Rice Bowl Follow-up Our parish joins all Catholics in the United States in this Catholic Relief Services’ faith-in-action program for families and faith communities. Through CRS Rice Bowl, we deepen our personal experience of Lent, and hear stories from our brothers and sisters in need worldwide. We devote our Lenten prayers, fasting and gifts to transform our relationship with God and neighbor. If you have not done so, please get your Rice Bowl box at the entrance of the church or the chapel. Please return your donation on Palm Sunday. Drop your checks to Holy Name Parish for Rice Bowl 2018, or your box in the basket that we will provide at the back of the church on that day. Thank you for your Lenten sacrificial offering.

Knitting and Crochet Group will meet this Tuesday, February 27, at 11:00AM in the meeting room of the Pastoral Center. We will organize the finished projects for the following recipients: Cancer Support Group, sick and homebound of Holy Name of Jesus parish, St. Anthony’s Center, Faith In Action program for the homeless of St. Agnes Parish, St. Vincent De Paul Center. We thank our volunteers for the many beautiful projects made with love and generosity, that truly warms the heart.

Holy Name Book Club If you are interested to be part of this new group for adults who love to read and share, please inform Sr. Cristina. We are looking at after Easter to begin. We are still accepting books you want to donate to the Pastoral Center Library and/or Religious Education Library.

Friday Stations of the Cross and Soup Supper All are invited to this Lenten practice, at 6:00PM in the church. We thank the ministry groups who lead and host both gatherings. We also thank Linda and Tony Sideco and Teodora Dela Cruz for preparing the Flanagan Center for the soup supper.
Today, our Second Collection is for our Parish Building & Maintenance Fund. Your generosity allows us to take care of our Parish plant. Thank you for your support.

ACE COLLECTION
Next Sunday, our Second Collection is the ACE Collection for the benefit of our Parish School. Your generosity is appreciated.

The second Sunday of Lent every year recalls the Transfiguration of the Lord. Since the fourth century, Mount Tabor has been the focus of devotion to this event. As mountains go, it is not particularly lofty, rising about fifteen hundred feet, within view of the Sea of Galilee and very close to Nazareth. Scripture doesn't identify the mountain, but in the year 348 Saint Cyril of Jerusalem said he preferred Mount Tabor to Mount Hermon as the site of the Transfiguration, and his opinion won. It has long been a strategic military site, and ancient fortresses are visible on the heights.

Over the centuries, churches and fortified monasteries rose on the mountaintop, only to be destroyed by various invaders. Six hundred years ago, local Christians started to decorate the ruins with flags and banners on the Feast of the Transfiguration. In 1631, the Sultan granted permission to the Franciscans to live on Mount Tabor, and they have been there ever since, discovering the ruins of an old Crusader church and constructing the present church on the site in 1924.

The top of the mountain is divided into Greek Orthodox and Latin (that’s us) zones. At one time, tourists arrived on the summit by bus, but this is no longer permitted. Some ride bicycles up a challenging and winding path, while others take the four thousand three hundred steps constructed for Christian pilgrims in the fourth century. It’s hard to imagine the fishermen following Jesus up this craggy mountain without complaint. Visitors will sympathize with Peter’s plan to construct booths and stay put with Jesus, Moses, and Elijah for a while, enjoying the view, and planning the trip back down.

HOLY NAME TREE OF LIFE
The Holy Name Tree of Life is a bronze tree trunk with approximately 400 leaves. It is located at the back of the church. Donations to the Tree of Life go towards a much needed Capital Improvement Fund. Each leaf costs $500 with a $25 engraving charge. We suggest a maximum number of characters to 5 lines, up to 25 characters per line including spaces. Leaf color choices are gold, silver or bronze.

HOLY NAME TREE OF LIFE

Please call (415) 664-8590 or drop by the Parish office (1555 39th Ave.) during business hours and the Staff can give you more information or help you make your selection, or help you with wording and processing your leaf donation. Honor your loved ones whether living or deceased with a gift of a leaf on our Tree of Life.

Second Sunday of Lent
February 25, 2018

At the end of The Laws of Our Fathers, Scott Turow has one of his characters, Seth Weissman, preach at a memorial service. The text for that service is today’s first reading and his words capture the challenge before us.

“I always return to the story of Abraham and Isaac … the founder of the Western faiths … He was a visionary, a prophet … But despite this, Abraham’s God decided to test him. He asked Abraham to make a sacrifice of his and Sarah’s only child, Isaac, their miracle, who was born to them when Sarah was ninety years old and Abraham was one hundred. And … Abraham complied.”

“He did not ask what was wrong with a God who would demand such a thing, or question whether He was worth worshiping. He did not, so far as the Bible tells us, even beg for Isaac’s life, as he had done for the people of Sodom. Abraham simply walked his child up Mount Moriah. I imagine he even made the boy carry the wood for the fire … ”

“… I have regarded for some years now the story of Abraham and Isaac a strange story, a grim tale of how a father would sacrifice his son to his own faith … What kind of a starting point is this for … all the Western faiths? … Why do we re-tell this story? Is it to remind us that every parent since has been better?”

“… One of the thousand morals of the story of Abraham and Isaac is that … it is also a tale of survival and of mercy. In the end Abraham heard his God instruct him not to set his hand against his son … Isaac survived … He became a parent, blind to Jacob’s defects, but one who, pointedly, attempted no sacrifices of his own … ”

“So let us think of Isaac … the first son of the Western faiths – and think about the story that is told again and again. We hear it first as children, and repeat it throughout our lives. We tell it by way of apology. And warning. We tell it with some measure of hope. We tell it because we have all been the child, we have all been Isaac, and we know the part of the story that is never mentioned. For the Bible does not record Isaac’s responses. We do not know if he, like Jesus, asked, ‘Father, why have you forsaken me?’ We do not know if he begged the way most of us would, for his life. We know only this: that he obeyed … That because he knew nothing else, he did as his father required. We know he allowed himself to be bound in rope. We know that he let his father lay him on the altar of pyramided firewood which together they had raised to God. We know he watched his father on the mountaintop raise the gleaming knife above his breastbone. We know … he was a child, the son of a man with a Big Idea, who in his longing and confusion, even in his final instant, could only look to his father with that eternal if foundering hope for love.”

May this story and our Eucharist give us hope that no matter what altar of sacrifice we feel sometimes laid upon, God does not abandon us in our need, and never wants us to sacrifice ourselves, or anyone else. Lent is about mercy and survival because true obedience to God, even in its demands for a hard love, ALWAYS leads to life. © Richard Leonard S.J.
