THANK YOU FROM THE HOLY NAME GABRIEL PROJECT
Happy New Year from the Holy Name Gabriel Project!! May the Lord fill you all with abundant blessings and a prosperous year in 2019!

A baby girl finally arrived on Tuesday, January 8. She weighed 7 lb 4.8 oz. No name is given to the baby yet. Both mom and baby are in good condition and will return to the shelter next week.

We would like to thank you all for the prayers and for your donation of baby supplies including diapers and baby clothes. In particular, we appreciated the financial support which allowed us to purchase a Minnie-Mouse car seat and a bassinet, according to the wishes of the client.

From this point onward, the life journey of the client will become very difficult, taking care of the newborn and her 2 year-old son by herself alone; plus worrying about their uncertain future. Your continued prayers are greatly appreciated.

Thank you again and God bless,
The Holy Name Gabriel Project

FAZtor’s Notes
by Fr. Arnold Zamora

After so many years, our Crab dinner is back. In fact, the Crab dinner this weekend is the first one ever since I came to Holy Name almost ten years ago. I think it was a popular dinner in the past, since many were excited to have it again and the fact that we have a sold-out event. Thanks to our planning committee.

Here’s a story about a male crab and a female lobster who are dating, but they are hiding it from their parents because of the obvious reason. Eventually the lobster gets tired of all the secrecy and she tells her father, who is curious and forbids her to see the crab again.

“But why can’t I see the crab again? We’re in love!” cries the lobster.

“Because,” says the father, trying to search for a reasonable answer, “crabs walk sideways and we walk straight!”

“Please, father,” she begs. "Just meet him once and I’m sure you will change your mind."

The father finally agrees to meet the crab and she runs out to tell him the good news.

The crab is so excited that he practices walking straight. He practices and practices until finally he can walk straight. He walks the entire way to the lobster’s house as straight as he can.

The father sees him coming and yells to his daughter, "Hey, here comes that crab and he’s been drinking!"

We would do anything, even the impossible, for the sake of love. Yet sometimes our motives are seen differently. Other times, people see the opposite. Yet we keep on loving because it is our nature to always love.

This new month of February, popularly known as the “month of love” because of Valentine’s Day, should remind us of our love and of loving always.

So, welcome to February and welcome to the new Lunar Year as we celebrate Chinese New Year this Tuesday, February 5th. Although we open this month with a crab dinner, it’s not the Year of the Crab even though it’s now crab season. I don’t think there is a Year of the Crab nor a Year of the Lobster.

It’s the Year of the Pig. There are twelve animals in the cycle and the pig occupies the twelfth position in the Chinese zodiac after the God, and before the Rat. This Year of the Pig is associated with Fortune, Career, Health, and Love. But of course, fortune, career, health and love are gifts and blessings from God (not from the pig). Regardless of the year, it is always a day to love, to answer God’s call to love one another.

Giving love is a pleasure of the heart. And receiving it back is a treasure of the soul. Always share a soft healing touch, a kind smile, a soothing word, a listening heart and an honest compliment.

Want more love? GIVE MORE LOVE!
After Mass, please join us for a special reception at the Flanagan Center, hosted by the Chinese ministry. Homemade treats and lunar new year-themed dishes will be served. Come enjoy and meet new friends!

On behalf of the Holy Name Chinese Ministry, I would like to wish all of our parishioners, friends, and neighbors, a delightful and harmonious New Year, full of God’s grace and blessings!
