SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: JULY 29, 2018

Recently I was invited to a relative’s home for dinner. This family has been having more than a little trouble with their 13-year-old daughter, who is going through a particularly defiant and rebellious stage. The young girl was not happy with the vegetables her mother served at dinner and so she refused to eat them. The uneaten vegetables became the staging ground for an adolescent conflict. Trying to coax the girl into eating, her mother calmly used some lines I’d heard before. “Wasting food is a sin” and “There are starving people in the world who would be grateful for what you don’t want.” With that the girl jumped up and left the dining room. A few minutes later she returned with an oversized envelope and a marker pen. She began to stuff the food into the envelope and as she did she angrily asked, “What starving people do you want me to send these vegetables to?” Who said being a parent was easy? Celibacy had never looked better!

In today’s Gospel, after the 5,000 have been fed, Jesus says, “Gather the pieces together that are left over. Let nothing be wasted.” Some of us have never truly been hungry, so it can be hard to fully appreciate how wasteful our developed world must appear to those who watch their families die of starvation. People who lived through the Depression or have lived through wars often carry the scars of being hungry. To this day some of them are on guard against waste. Others try to numb the memory of want by overindulging. For most of us in the developed world, especially 13-year-old middle-class kids, hunger has only ever been fleeting, and we are presently eating ourselves into obesity.

Some people would prefer to think of the story of the feeding of the five thousand exclusively in spiritual terms. There is no question that today’s Gospel refers to the Eucharist where all are spiritually nourished by Christ our host. It also refers to the eternal banquet where hunger will be no more. But this Gospel asks us to look at our world through the eyes of Christ’s kingdom where the mighty will be cast down from their thrones, the poor will be raised up, and the rich who will not share will be sent away.

There is such a thing as healthy guilt. It’s where we become aware of what we have done or failed to do to bring about Christ’s Kingdom in our world. Given that it is entirely unnecessary for 29,000 people, on average, to die each day because of lack of food and water and the diseases this brings, guilt on our part seems a reasonable response. It becomes a healthy moment in our lives when we decide to change our priorities, and call for similar changes in a nation’s priorities which spends more on bombs than starving babies.

I often wonder what God thinks when he hears wealthy nations say that the reason they refuse to share more with the poor is because these poorer nations often have unelected despots who divert their country’s wealth into Swiss bank accounts or nuclear and conventional weaponry programs. Even in the face of these complex issues we could find a way to feed the hungry who might, one day, be empowered to take charge of their nations.

“What starving people do you want me to send these vegetables to?”, the 13 year old asked. To which I wanted to reply, “Put your own name on the envelope because your own comfort makes you the neediest person in the world.”

May this Eucharist enable us to do on earth what is done in heaven, where the hungry are welcomed and fed, the leftovers are gathered together and nothing is wasted.

Baptism FAQ

What do we need to do to have our baby baptized?

1. Pick-up or download information packets: Registered parishioners can stop by the parish office to pick up the Baptism Application to be completed by the parents and the Sponsor/Godparent. You may also download the forms from our website www.holynamesf.org

2. Pre-Baptism Class: Parents and Godparents must attend the Pre-Baptism class. Call the parish office (415) 664-8590 to register for the class date you wish to attend! Classes may be taken at another parish, but a certificate of completion is necessary for paperwork.

Reserve a Date for the Baptism: As soon as your paperwork is completed, take it to the parish office (or mail, fax or e-mail it) in order to reserve a baptismal date.

Why do the parents and Godparents have to attend a preparation class and Faith Formation?

Before the celebration of baptism, the Church expects parents and sponsors to be formed in the meaning of the Sacrament as well as its responsibilities (Canon 851). Holy Name Parish offers preparation session on every 2nd Saturday of the month at 10:30 AM in the Pastoral Center. Pre-registration is necessary to attend.

The role of the sponsor (Godparent) is, “together who the parent and infant at baptism, and... help the baptized to lead a Christian life in harmony with baptism, and to fulfill faithfully the obligations connected with it” (Canon 872). One sponsor, male or female, is sufficient; but there may be two, one of each sex (Canon 873). Sponsors must: be sixteen (16) years of age, “be a Catholic who has been Confirmed and has already received the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist and leads a life in harmony with the faith and role to be undertaken” and “not be the father or mother of the child being baptized” (Canon 874). Sponsors must be Catholic: “a baptized person who belongs to a non-Catholic ecclesial community may not be admitted except as a witness to baptism and together with a Catholic sponsor” (Canon 874.2).

Who is considered for infant baptism?

The Church considers anyone who has not yet completed their seventh year to be an infant. Therefore, the parents of children under the age of seven may request baptism and attend the parish’s infant baptism preparation session. For those children who are over seven years of age the Church requires that they make a profession of faith. Therefore it is necessary that they themselves be prepared for the Sacraments of Initiation. Please contact the parish office for more information. On Children’s Initiation.

May a non-Catholic be a Sponsor/Godparent?

Because the child is being baptized into the Roman Catholic Church, “a baptized person who belongs to a non-Catholic ecclesial community may not be admitted except as a witness to baptism and together with a Catholic sponsor.” (Canon 874, 2). In other words, as long as there is one Catholic Godparent who meets all the requirements of the Church listed above, another baptized person, Catholic or non-Catholic, may be a witness to the baptism.

How many Godparents can a child have?

Only one Godfather and/or one Godmother can be baptismal sponsors (Canon 873) but additional Catholic persons may act as witnesses at the baptism.

Is there a charge for the baptism?

The Church never charges for the celebration of a Sacrament. Rather, Christians give out of gratitude for what they have received from God. A donation to the parish may be made after the celebration of the baptism. As this donation does not go to the priest, a separate gift may be given to him.
HOLY NAME SCHOOL CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

In 1938 the first pastor of Holy Name Parish began going door to door, asking for support to create a Catholic School that would serve the children of San Francisco’s Sunset district. Thanks to Father Ryan’s vision and determination, the Sunset sand dunes were replaced with Holy Name’s foundation that has kept thousands of students safe for decades.

Over the past 76 years building codes and safety standards have continued to change, and we are now faced with the opportunity to strengthen not only the walls of our school, but also the legacy it holds and offers. After undergoing a required phased evaluation by the City of San Francisco, it was determined that Holy Name School could further strengthen its building through a seismic retrofit project.

Just as Father Ryan was excited to campaign in making his dream a reality, so too are we. Though we are strong and steady school, we are excited and ready to move our school forward by meeting the safety standards of our generation.

We hope that you will join us in our Capital Campaign so that we can preserve Holy Name’s traditions and legacy for future generations, just as our past generations have done for us. Together let us keep the hallways of Holy Name School safe for all students—present and future.

OUR GOAL, OUR PROMISE

Our goal is to keep Holy Name School safe for our students and the many that will fill the hallways in the years to come.

Our promise is that we will complete our Seismic Retrofit Project by 2019 so that we can keep our doors open to future generations and preserve the legacy that earlier generations laid for us.
