YOUR HEALTH MATTERS!

Did you know? that the average school age kid gets between 5-7 colds per year? Do you also know that when a person coughs, the air born droplets can travel up to 3 feet in diameter and, depending on the germ, if it is a virus or a bacteria, it can live on a surface from several days to a week? So here are a few "common steps" one can take to minimize the spread of one's cough.

1. Use proper covering of your mouth when you cough, by coughing into your sleeve. If you use a Kleenex, dispose of your Kleenex in the garbage, and wash your hands immediately.
2. If your cough lasts more than 5 days, seek medical advice. Do Not self diagnose!
3. Wash your hands before and after you eat and use the restrooms.

Here at Holy Name we encourage you to share your time/talent/treasure, but please don't share your germs.

To your health,
Angela Testani R.N.

LET US PRAY FOR:

We pray for the Sick...that they may experience God’s Love and Healing.

We pray for those who have Died...John Perotti, Sr.
As you go to school or simply live your life, here are few things that make our new ministry a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope.

We have quite an increase in enrollment this year from 326 last year to 365 this year. Here’s a breakdown of the number of students: Kindergarten - 34, 1st Grade - 31, 2nd Grade - 31, 3rd Grade - 36, 4th Grade - 39, 5th Grade - 30, 6th Grade - 53, 7th Grade - 52, and 8th Grade - 59. Sixth to Eighth Grades are double-classes.

We have 65 new students excluding Kindergarten. Here’s the breakdown: 1st - 4, 2nd - 7, 3rd - 3, 4th - 12, 5th - 3, 6th - 22, 7th - 6, and 8th - 6. With Kindergarten, the total will be 97.

And we have 12 new teachers and staff including our principal Mr. Michael Miller, who has already been doing wonderful things in just a few weeks of his new ministry. So, welcome and best wishes to our new teachers and staff. Ms. Karen Brennan (Kindergarten), Mrs. Carol Chang (Kindergarten Aide), Mrs. Britney Kirby (Grades 1 & 2 Math Resource Support Teacher), Mrs. Megan Wainwright (Grade 5 Teacher, Grade 4 History Teacher), Mrs. Sara Gargiulo (Grades 3-5 ELA Teacher and Spanish Teacher), Ms. Paula Mak (7th ELA Teacher - 8th Advanced ELA), Mr. Tony Shen (8th Teacher - Jr. High Science), Ms. Yolanda Herrera (Art Teacher), Mrs. Shea Knoss (School Counselor) and Mrs. Mimi Pratt (School Counselor).

With a lot of new students and teachers, I wish everybody the best of new beginnings, a new year of new energy and new hope, and the experience of new wonders and God’s blessings.

As you go to school or simply live your life, here are few things you must have in your survival kit: TOOTHPICK - Reminds us to look for the good qualities in our students. You may be the only teacher who says something positive to them that day. RUBBER BAND - Reminds the teacher that they have to be flexible. Things don’t always go the way we plan, but flexibility will help to work it out. BAND AID - Reminds the teacher that sometimes we do more than teach, that we help heal hurt feelings, broken dreams, and lend an ear to a problem. PENCIL - Reminds us to be thankful and we should list our blessings daily, but also encourage our students to list their blessings and to be proud of their accomplishments. ERASER - Reminds us to allow students to know we are human and make mistakes just like they do, and it’s ok. We must all be able to learn from our mistakes. CHEWING GUM - Reminds us to stick with it and encourage our students to do likewise. Even the impossible task or assignment can be accomplished by sticking to it. MINT - Reminds us and our students we are worth a mint. (We may not be paid a mint, but are worth one.) CANDY KISS - Reminds us that everyone needs a hug, kiss, or warm greeting everyday. (All teachers, students, parents, and even administrators). TEA BAG - Reminds us we need time to relax, go over our blessings, and take time for others. Family, husbands, wives, friends, children need quality time together. A teacher must be willing to show their students how much they care!!!

May we all have a wonderful year!

Happy Feast day to the Canossian Family

This is a special day for Canossian Sisters, Fathers and Brothers, Lay Canossians, and Secular Missionaries. St. Magdalene of Canossa told us that our true Foundress and Mother is Mary, Mother of Charity at the foot of the cross. Please pray for good and generous vocations to the Canossian family, for the greater glory of God and at the service of the Church.

Mark your Calendar: Next Saturday, September 21 is Youth Ministry starting with Youth Mass at 5:00PM

This year we are introducing something new in our parish! Every third Saturday of the month, the 5:00PM Vigil Mass will be led by young people of our parish. This is one way to have them participate at Mass more actively. We thank Tri Nguyen and his “Rock Band” who will provide music for the Liturgy. Parents, please encourage your teenagers to come and be part of something great! Immediately after Mass, we will gather in the Pastoral Center for some social action activities. For more information please refer to Holy Name Youth Ministry Team: Alejandro Brito, Erin & John Grogan, Julie & Justina Quock, Bro. Gerry Vasquez.

Widows and Widowers Morning of Reflection

The theme of our reflection is “Life of the Spirit: Reviving Hope.” We will gather in the Flanagan Center at 9:30AM to 12:30PM. Refreshments will be served. For more information, contact Sr. Cristina or Valerie Toy. Extend this invitation to your friends or someone you know who may be interested.

Novena for the feast of San Lorenzo Ruiz de Manila

This year Holy Name will join St. Anne Parish for the novena in preparation for the feast of Filipino proto-martyr St. Lorenzo Ruiz. The novena days are Sept. 19-27, at 6:30PM in St. Anne’s. The feast will be celebrated on Sept. 28th. Our parish will host the second day, Friday, Sept. 20th. Novena prayers will be at 6:30PM, followed by Mass at 7:00PM. Fr. Arnold will be the celebrant, with Fr. Pete Tsien as homilist. We will also host a simple supper immediately following. The Fil-Am Ministry led by Ramsey Ramos and Freda Motak, will coordinate with Sr. Cristina for this liturgical event. All are invited to attend!
Dear Holy Name Parishioners,

The grace of the Holy Spirit permeates through the Holy Name Community. Today our school celebrates the annual Spirit Mass, led by the school leadership of Student Council members. They chose the theme of Love. I could not think of a more perfect word that would connect Holy Name School to its Parish. Love is the awesome representation of what brings community together. After the Spirit Mass begins the annual International Food Fest that brings a whole new love of community spirit, one that enriches the taste buds and fills the stomach. It is an event that brings members of our school, our Parish, our neighborhood, our city together. The love of food and the love of God truly brings the Holy Spirit to the Holy Name Community today. Please join us after Mass and share the love of good food, good friends, and good neighbors!

HOLY NAME LADIES AID

Today, members of the Holy Name Ladies Aid Society will be collecting for the needy in the Parish. Boxes will be by the exits.

THE PRIESTS RETIREMENT FUND

Archdiocesan priests participate in the Social Security program, but because of the modest amount they earned during their many years of ministry, their monthly benefits are significantly smaller than those typically received by retired lay people. With gratitude, Catholics in the Archdiocese of San Francisco have acknowledged their responsibility to help our priests during their retirement. To that end, the Archdiocese of San Francisco established the Priests Retirement Fund.

At age 70, our retired priests begin receiving a monthly pension. These priests use this money for basic needs, such as food, housing and transportation. The fund also provides retired priests with health insurance and extended care expenses, if needed.

Please join in thanking the retired clergy of the Archdiocese of San Francisco with a gift to the Priests Retirement Fund Collection at Masses on September 22 and 23. Support of the Fund helps alleviate the financial burden of living, healthcare, and extended care expenses, and ensures that clergy and religious can spend retirement in continued engagement with their communities. The Priests Retirement Fund is an expression of gratitude to these men for a lifetime of ministry and service.

For more information, please contact the Office of Development at 415-614-5582 or development@sfarch.org.

And don’t forget the annual St. John Vianney Luncheon on October 26 in support of the Retirement Fund. Visit sfarchdiocese.org/PRFlunch.

LOST AND FOUND

Welcome to “Lost and Found Sunday”! Just in case being in church makes us proudly consider ourselves especially religious, today’s Gospel suggests that we’d be wiser to admit that we’re sometimes lost. Then we’ll eventually be happily counted among Jesus’ “found,” because today Jesus focuses on a lost sheep, lost coin, lost son. Jesus does so because the Pharisees and scribes, proudly considering themselves especially religious, “began to complain” that Jesus “welcomes sinners and eats with them.” So Jesus warns them—and us—to stop judging others. Marvel instead that God’s amazing grace has found us! Indeed, we should become Jesus’ friends lovingly trying to find others. So Exodus asks, if God “relented in punishment” and pardoned us, shouldn’t we forgive fellow sinners graciously? Even Paul admits his “arrogance” as “foremost among sinners.” We too, happy at being “mercifully treated,” should share with everyone else Jesus’ unfailing patience.

Hello!

Welcome to “Lost and Found Sunday”! Just in case being in church makes us proudly consider ourselves especially religious, today’s Gospel suggests that we’d be wiser to admit that we’re sometimes lost. Then we’ll eventually be happily counted among Jesus’ “found,” because today Jesus focuses on a lost sheep, lost coin, lost son. Jesus does so because the Pharisees and scribes, proudly considering themselves especially religious, “began to complain” that Jesus “welcomes sinners and eats with them.” So Jesus warns them—and us—to stop judging others. Marvel instead that God’s amazing grace has found us! Indeed, we should become Jesus’ friends lovingly trying to find others. So Exodus asks, if God “relented in punishment” and pardoned us, shouldn’t we forgive fellow sinners graciously? Even Paul admits his “arrogance” as “foremost among sinners.” We too, happy at being “mercifully treated,” should share with everyone else Jesus’ unfailing patience.

A bishop in a rural diocese was explaining to the confirmation class how he was the shepherd of the flock. Given that many of the children came from large sheep farms he decided to draw on today’s Gospel as an analogy for his pastoral leadership. “I care for all of you like the Good Shepherd,” he said. The students seemed consoled. Warming up, the bishop continued, “For instance, what would your fathers do if he lost one of his sheep?” The class was silent. The bishop asked again. The students were confused. The bishop got personal, “Michael what would your Dad do?” “Seeing we’ve 42,000 of them, bishop, he’d let the stupid animal go!”

Sometimes the power of the Gospel needs a little help to become inculturated! If the bishop had done his homework and asked Michael about 420 missing sheep he would’ve got the answer he was after!

The Exodus reading and the Gospel from Luke could not provide a greater contrast in the images of God they present. Thank goodness we are children of the new covenant, intimates of the Good Shepherd.

The Lord in Exodus, by contrast, is vengeful; his destructive anger only changes because of Moses’ intercession. The idea that God “gets us” through disasters, illness, misfortune and hardship is, tragically, still potent in Christian faith. No matter how often the Church teaches us, for example, that HIV/AIDS has not been sent as a curse by God on gay men, or that non-Christians are not punished for their beliefs through war and famine or that God does not send small accidents and sicknesses because God knows we need a rest, we can find this erroneous thinking is alive and well. At its worst it drives people away from the Good Shepherd who knows each of us by name, who will go to ridiculous lengths and risk everything to go after us and welcome us home.

There is a huge difference between God permitting evil in the world and God perpetrating such acts. We do not believe that God, the summit and source of love, rains down evil upon the world. Whatever of the many and wonderfully varied images of God in the Old Testament, the Israelites had a developed belief in God’s vengeance. Jesus, however, spoke more of God’s justice and compassion. And even as intimate and loving as the Good Shepherd metaphor is, Jesus is clear about our freedom to choose between life in goodness we are children of the new covenant, intimates of the Good Shepherd.

The Gospel from Luke on the other hand has a much more radical and Christian take on God’s role in our lives. Luke, more than any other Gospel writer, emphasizes God’s great love for us. In this Gospel, Jesus says, “I am here not to call the righteous, but sinners.” Jesus, then, explicitly says he is the Good Shepherd, he is the one who calls, the one who enters to find and return the lost. And even as intimate and loving as the Good Shepherd metaphor is, Jesus is clear about our freedom to choose between life in goodness we are children of the new covenant, intimates of the Good Shepherd.
