Strengthen your drooping hands and your weak knees. Make straight paths for your feet, that what is lame may not be disjointed but healed. — Hebrews 12:12-13
It is always a great joy to see new faces in our community. If you see them, just don’t stare at them, please smile and welcome them. If you cannot engage in conversation, a smile and a word of hello will do. Remember our Holy Name motto: “No one is a stranger.” Let us give a warm welcome to the new families in the school and in the parish.

Of the new faces I’ve seen and welcomed, I was fascinated by a young man who has been coming to our mass every day. By young man, I mean, a person who looks like a teenager. Not like me, a young man in his fifties. Lately, he has been joined by his younger brother who just came from Vietnam but who speaks English so clearly and fluently. “Thanks to Disney Channel,” he said. I give my admiration and a special welcome to brothers Loc and An Pham. Loc is a financial analyst working in the City and An will be studying Journalism at the City College. Welcome to our parish family.

Let us also welcome and congratulate Louis Chan and Valerie Toy, the newly elected coordinators of our Chinese Ministry. Both Valerie and Louis are longtime parishioners of Holy Name and both sit on our Pastoral Council and have been involved in various ministries in our parish. We thank Nelson Lao for the fruitful years he served as coordinator of the Chinese Ministry. Nelson, who will still be working with the Bible Study Group every Wednesday evening, is not also short on expressing his gratitude: “I thank you so much for giving me guidance and support the past few years, and I am sure that you will enjoy working with Valerie and Louis very much.”

Having been on a plane ride lately, it brings to mind how some airlines employees welcome their passengers and try to make it a bit more entertaining. From a Southwest Airlines employee: “Welcome aboard Southwest Flight XXX to YYY. To operate your bit more entertaining. From a Southwest Airlines employee: airlines employees welcome their passengers and try to make it a

In the event of a sudden loss of cabin pressure, oxygen masks will descend from the ceiling. Stop screaming, grab the mask, and pull it over your face. If you have a small child traveling with you, secure your mask before assisting with theirs. If you are traveling with two small children decide now which one you love more.”

"Weather at our destination is 50 degrees with some broken clouds, but they’ll try to have them fixed before we arrive. Thank you, and remember, nobody loves you or your money more than Southwest Airlines." “As you exit the plane, please make sure to gather all of your belongings. Anything left behind will be distributed evenly among the flight attendants. Please do not leave children or spouses.”

From the pilot during his welcome message: “We are pleased to have some of the best flight attendants in the industry... Unfortunately, none of them are on this flight...”

Kind words are like the seats in an airplane. You will still get to your destination without them, but the journey is a lot more comfortable with them. Don’t forget to say “welcome” to the new faces and “thank you” to those who have served you. Our journey together will be a lot more comfortable.

Thank you for your continued support.
