FAZtor’s Notes

By Fr. Arnold Zamora

Hail to Christ the King, the King of the Universe, the King of our Hearts!

We celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King this Sunday, always on the last Sunday of the Church’s liturgical calendar. Next week is the First Sunday of Advent, the beginning of a new liturgical year. We are reminded that everything will come to an end. Our life will come to an end someday. But it is not a dead end; it is a fruitful end—full of hope and promise because it all ends in the Resurrection, and Christ’s second coming. Let us make the last stretch of our journey, not in fear and trembling, but with hope and thanksgiving.

Indeed, everything has its season; everything has its end. After 75 years of dedicated service, the Rectory heating boiler has had to be replaced. Installed in 1942, when the Rectory was built, the initial fuel source for the boiler was oil. It was converted to a gas boiler, most probably in the 1950’s or 60’s, perhaps when the building itself was moved across the street in late 1962. We run the heating on a timer, usually only from October or November until April or May, and only for the early mornings and again in the evening.

After last winter’s multiple repairs, it was suggested that the unit be replaced. Along with the replacement, our dedicated HN helpers Fred Grafelman and Frank O’Brien cleaned out the convectors in each room, all 25 of them or so. After a test run in the summer, only three of the convectors were nonfunctional, and we are waiting on replacement units for those as well.

The cost of the replacement boiler is approximately $32,655, the replacement convectors cost is still to be determined, waking up to a toasty Rectory—priceless!

The work never stops in the parish. There is always something to be done. But I don’t have to worry because our parishioners’ support never stops either, a great reason for me to be thankful.

Speaking of the end of times and seasons, and the end of things we just cannot escape, the end of life. After 75 years of dedicated service, the Rectory heating boiler has had to be replaced. Speaking of the end of times and seasons, and the end of things we just cannot escape, the end of life. We just lost two longtime and active parishioners in the past few weeks. We are thankful.

We also had a Funeral mass for William “Bill” Dickson last Saturday, November 18th. He and his wife Alice were married here at HN, and had three children who attended the school. Bill was a member of the Knights of Holy Name and was a humble World War II hero serving in the Air Force flying B-17 bombers over Germany and completed 35 missions, helping to win the war and stabilize the world. Nevertheless, he just wanted to be remembered as a “good guy.”

Rite of Christian Initiation of Children of Catechetical Age
At the 9:30AM Mass on the First Sunday of Advent, December 3rd, four children and youth will be accepted to the Catechumenate in our parish. They are all preparing for Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Communion. They will be welcomed to the Catholic Church during the Easter Vigil Liturgy in the evening of March 31, 2018. Please pray for them, their parents, godparents, and the catechists who are accompanying them in this Journey of Faith and sacramental preparation.

RCIA Phase Two: The Catechumenate
The catechumenate phase marks the beginning of formal instructions in the faith. Prospective Catholics learn the basics of the faith and how to live the Catholic way of life. The catechumenate focuses on Jesus, his teachings, the Church, and the sacraments. The primary group that the catechumens meet is the team of catechists, who accompany them in a weekly session of knowing and deepening the Catholic faith. Moreover, it is the responsibility of the whole parish community of Holy Name of Jesus to accompany the catechumens with prayers.

During this important journey towards Easter, please pray for our catechumens and candidates: Marilu, Leslie, Allison, Samuel, Jerome. Please include them and their families in your daily intercessions. Thank you.

Advent Recollection Day All parishioners are invited to a day of prayer and reflection during the holy season of Advent. It will be on Saturday, December 16, at 9:30AM to 12:00 Noon in the Flanagan Center. Snacks will be served throughout the morning. It will be guided by the Canossian Sisters. Lay Canossians are encouraged to make this day your own Advent retreat day. Please ask Sr. Cristina for more information.

A priest and pastor from the local parishes are standing by the side of the road holding up a sign that reads, “The End is Near! Turn yourself around now before it’s too late!” They planned to hold up the sign to each passing car.

“Leave us alone you religious nuts!” yelled the first driver as he sped by. From around the curve they heard screeching tires and a big splash.

“Do you think,” said one clergy to the other, “we should just put up a sign that says ‘Bridge Out’ instead?”

Where there is an end, there is also a beginning. Looking forward to those beginnings, be they in this world or in the world to come!

Prayer - Daily Scripture Reading – Reflection

In Fr. Arnold’s homily, he informed us that he has developed a routine of spending more time with the Lord in prayer. Recently, Fr. decided to transform a small room in rectory as an oratory or a prayer room. In addition, he encouraged us to allow ourselves to be nurtured by the Word of God. Let’s consider to follow the Pastor’s commitment as our obligation to spend time on daily prayer through the reading of a scripture on your smartphone and then reflect on it. This can be done while waiting for the bus, or on the bus, or during your lunch time or break time at work. How does it work? If you are interested to receive the scripture through text or as an email message, please text Rose Tang at 415-793-0967; or email her at rose_lo818@yahoo.com.

Sunday, Nov 26,  2017: Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

The Roman Emperor Constantine was baptized in 337. He put it off for years. In the early Church Christians could only confess their sins once in their lives, so Constantine remained a catechumen until he was nearing the end. When he thought his death was imminent, and that he could probably sin no more, he asked for baptism, received Holy Communion and later confessed his sins. It was a watershed moment for the Church.

In 313 Constantine declared that Christianity was to be the new state religion. No one could hold any other belief. It was meant to unify the Empire as trade, law, taxation, and Roman culture had done. I think we should admit that this move has been a mixed blessing for the Church ever since.

On the positive side of the ledger it finally sealed the end of the persecution of the earliest Christians. The blood of the martyrs had been so eloquent that their witness caused even a few emperors to ask what sort of love would see so many followers be prepared to die for their beliefs. It also saw the Church become a significant player in shaping the values of society, especially in the West. There is no question that Christianity moderated, cultivated, and humanized some of the worst Roman excesses.

On the cost side, the Church became very powerful very quickly. Bishops started to wear the purple robes of the senators. Churches took on the shape of the Roman basilicas, while the government of the Church mirrored that of the Empire. Our liturgy imported all sorts of practices that were popular in the Roman temples. Tragically, for the next few hundred years, conversions were prepared all sorts of practices that were popular in the Roman temple.

It cannot surprise us that after Constantine’s conversion the image of Christ the King becomes one of the most popular ones used in religious art. Up to this time the image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd was the most represented. After 313, however, Jesus is dressed in royal robes, with a crown, scepter and orb. Mary is often presented in similar dress and starts to be called the Queen of Heaven.

The problem with all this is not that imperial language was now being used in reference to Jesus. He described himself as a King. The problem comes in how Christianity starts to forget that Jesus also pointed out that his kingdom was “not of this world” and that his courtiers could be recognized by how they feed the hungry, water the thirsty, welcome strangers, clothe the naked, care for the sick, and visit prisoners. Jesus’ reign, and his courtiers, are of an altogether different order to that usually prized in worldly kingdoms.

That’s why today’s feast is so important. On the last day of the Church’s year we are challenged by Christ our King to give our true allegiance to what really matters. Not ambition, greed, status, and power, but the quiet revolutionary work of making the world a more just and peaceful place for everyone to live.

To the degree that we do this we are co-heirs to the Kingdom Jesus lived, died and was raised for, and we are witnesses to the real meaning of Christ’s reign in our lives.

2018 MASS BOOK

The 2018 Mass Intentions book is now ready. Please mail your requests with (1) the Name of the person you wish to have the Mass said for, (2) please indicate if the person is (L) Living or (D) Deceased, (3) your name, address and phone number (4) enclose a check payment.
