PARISH MISSION STATEMENT
HOLY NAME OF JESUS PARISH SAN FRANCISCO is a welcoming multicultural and liturgical community that celebrates our Christian Faith. In the spirit of the "Joy of the Gospel" we work together promoting Catholic values and teachings. Our parish encourages a strong devotion to our Blessed Mother Mary, who gives us an example of faithful discipleship.

A SAINTLY DEFINITION
The saint does everything that any other decent person does, only somewhat better and with a totally different motive.

— Coventry Patmore

October 28, 2018
Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Although they go forth weeping, carrying the seed to be sown, they shall come back rejoicing, carrying their sheaves.

— Psalm 126:6
Today's Readings

First Reading — I will lead the people to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble (Jeremiah 31:7-9).

Psalm — The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).

Second Reading — It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you (Hebrews 5:1-6).

Gospel — Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way (Mark 10:46-52).

Readings for the Week

Wednesday: Eph 6:1-2; Ps 146:1-5; Lk 13:40-43

Sunday Reflection

LECTIO DIVINA

Read: Those who left weeping will return in joy, thanks to the intervention of God. A priest is one called upon by God to bring people to God. Jesus heals Bartimaeus, the blind, in response to his cry.

Reflect: “Go your way” was the blessing and permission given to Jesus and Bartimaeus after healing him; but Bartimaeus chooses to follow Jesus. He had known no other way than that of Jesus. Perhaps he understood far better than others what Jesus meant when he had said, “I am the way”. Bartimaeus chose correctly. There is no way to go deeper sight, knowledge, and life’s fulfillment but following Jesus.

Pray: “Lord Jesus, you are the way, the truth, and the life. Let me walk your path in your light.”

Reflections: Bartimaeus sat on the side of the way, having pilgrims throw coins onto his cloak spread out before him. But the presence of Jesus encouraged him to abandon his cloak, jump up from his ground level existence and ask to truly see the way from Jesus’ perspective. Jesus responded to this act of faith by curing the disease so that Bartimaeus could see ahead in the same way as Jesus and follow him on “the Way”.

It's our School Fright Fest this weekend. But don't be frightened, don't be scared! Rather, let's have some fun and let's enjoy the day. It's a fun-filled day of carnival games, inflatables, a haunted house, bingo, costume contest, raffles, great food and more.

Indeed, this Saturday is a happy day! Join me in congratulating our longtime parishioner Margaret Costello as she receives the 2018 “Woman of the Year” award given by the San Francisco Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women. The ceremony will be held at St. Cecilia’s Lower Hall following a Holy Mass that I will be presiding at 11:00AM. Margaret has been a parishioner of Holy Name for the past 60 years. She is the familiar face you see at the entrance of the church for the Sunday, 11:30AM mass. You can't miss her as she greets people and goes out the books for the mass. Her life has been devoted to God and dedicated to service in the church and outside the church. She is one of our Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion at the weekday and weekend masses. She visits sick and homebound parishioners weekly, for communion service, as well as keeping them abreast with news about the parish. She brings Holy Communion to patients at Kaiser Medical Center, a ministry she has been doing for the past 37 years. Indeed, she is showing us an example of being a mission-partner of Christ in His church and of how to walk the Stewardship way of life. She said that “the happiest people are those who volunteer to help others.” So on behalf of Holy Name of Jesus Parish, I thank Margaret Costello for her faithful witness to our parish and for her dedication to build the kingdom of God here on earth.

Happiness is there when two people are in love. We should be happy to know that we have another wedding taking place this weekend. This is the third wedding we have this month. We congratulate the newly wed couple Christopher Zawaideh (HN ’05) and Nadia Madanat (HN ’06).

With the Fright Fest and wedding taking place at the same time this Saturday, parking will be hard. Somehow, we have improved our parking situation inside the school yard during the weekend masses. We have asked parishioners to park perpendicular facing the wall. We hope everybody will be used to doing it this way in due time, so we can have an orderly parking and we can accommodate more cars.

A businessman walked into a New York City bank and asked for the loan officer. He said he was going to Europe on business for two weeks and needed to borrow $5,000. The loan officer said the bank would need some security for such a loan.

The business man then handed over the keys to a Rolls Royce that was parked on the street in front of the bank. Everything checked out and the loan officer accepted the car as collateral for the loan. An employee then drove the Rolls into the bank’s underground garage and parked it there.

Two weeks later the businessman returned, repaid the $5,000 and the interest which came to $15.41.

The loan officer said, "We do appreciate your business and this transaction has worked out very nicely, but we..."

REFLECTION:
"Religion needs prophets, and thank God we have them, because it would be a sad Church that felt itself owner of the truth and rejected everything else. A Church that only condemns, a Church that sees sins only in others and does not look at the beam in its own eye, is not the authentic Church of Christ."

-St. Oscar Romero (1917-1980) became Archbishop of San Salvador in 1977. A prophetic voice of the poor who was ultimately martyred at the altar while saying Mass. He was canonized on October 14, 2018.

Knitting and Crochet Group meets every fourth Tuesday of the month, at 11:00AM-12:30PM in the meeting room of the Pastoral Center. Thanks very much to those who have made projects that we give to different Centers for women, babies, and those who need warm clothing during this cold season. Our next gathering will be on Oct. 30, 2018. We will begin a new project prayer shawls. You will need soft yarn for this, and chosen colors are dark or light gray, lavender or rose. Thanks for sharing your time and talents, to be enjoyed by all.

Grief and Consolation Committee has already sent invitations for the annual Memorial Mass for past deceased Holy Name of Jesus parishioners who passed away this year. A simple reception will be held in the Flanagan Center, immediately after Mass. Please RSVP to the parish office. Thank you.

Religious Education Program
We still have time for parents to register their children for catechism classes. These are held every Sunday, 10:45 AM-12:00 Noon in the Pastoral Center. We encourage children and youth who need to be baptized, receive first Holy Communion and/or Confirmation. We have very few children in our Religious Education classes, to date. We understand that your children can not come to register themselves or come to the Pastoral Center by themselves. We encourage parents or guardians to give this matter serious thought. Thanks for your kind attention and response.

Confirmation Class for Adults If you or someone you know need to prepare to receive the sacrament of Confirmation, please call Sr. Cristina in the parish office. You may schedule an individual session with Sister, or join the ongoing class on Wednesday at 6:15-7:30PM in the Pastoral Center.

THE HOPE AND PROMISE OF REDEMPTION

The prophet Jeremiah prophesies the end of the Babylonian exile. He describes how the weak and sorrowful people now return with joy. These are the scattered people of God: the blind and the lame, the mothers and pregnant women. They shall be led along an easy road so that no one will stumble.

The Lord’s kindness and mercy are on all these weak and broken people.

Here and in Psalm 126 we find the most lovely poetic images of God’s love and care for us. “Those that sow in tears / shall reap rejoicing. Although they go forth weeping, / carrying the seed to be sown, / they shall come back rejoicing, / carrying their sheaves” (Psalm 126:5–6). Although God had to punish Israel for their many sins, God never forgot them, scattered as they were, and brings them all back to the land of their ancestors, there to flourish and be joyful again. We can see in this the hope and the promise of our own redemption, gathered from the far corners of the earth into the great banquet of God.
