“Help Us, Help Others”

TODAY’S SECOND COLLECTION IS THE WORLD MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION
Your prayers and generous support directly benefit the Mission Church today. That support reaches clinics for the sick and dying, orphanages providing a place of safety and shelter, schools offering education from Kindergarten through High School. Your help provides for seminarians preparing for the priesthood, and religious Sisters and Brothers in formation programs. All of this takes place in 1,111 mission dioceses, mostly in Africa and Asia, where the poorest of the poor receive an education and health care while experiencing the loving heart of our Lord through the service of priests, religious and lay faithful.

We pray for the Sick ... that they may experience God’s Love and Healing.

Evangeline Agbunag, Nick Aguila, Rosa Maria Alonso, Laura Andrade, Giana Arenas, Eunice Ausman, Julianne Beach, Joan Boike, Dalmacio Briones, Jr., Monica Briones, Pauline Boffi, Janet Carignan, Remedios Cuchapin, Joseph Chu, Viana Chua, Ron de la Cruz, Isabel Dominguez, Mr. & Mrs. Rodolfo Ezequiel, Lourdes Gatchalian, Connor Gavney, Genoveva Guevarra, Daniel Hsu, Lee Huang, Theresa Ick, Kathy Ignacio, Max Kirkham, Jim Kreps, Steven Lee, Cynthia Lee, Amelia Lippi, Leny Lopez, Flory Magat, George Maloof, Amy McNally, Mary Medina, Ann Murphy, Jeffrey Ng, Inge Nordstrom, Neil O’Sullivan, Manuel Pacheco, Josefina Palanca, Mary Palmer, Marybeth Palmer, Maryanne Piwowar, Nathaniel Ramos, Soledad Rico, Maria Salas, Michael Joseph Suntar, Narciso Sumaylo, Maureen Sweeney, Dodie Teague, Victariana Tolentino, Lauretta Venenciano

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest until it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw ‘till the Most High responds. — Sirach 35:17-18a
You may have noticed that I have been giving the homilies at all the masses for the last two weeks, explaining what stewardship means at Holy Name of Jesus. I will continue to do so in the coming weeks. This is in preparation for our Stewardship Commitment that will take place on the last weekend of this month, where we will be asking each parish family to make commitments of their time, talent and treasure.

This weekend, you will hear from a parishioner who will share what stewardship has meant in his or her life. Reflect on how you are involved at Holy Name of Jesus… Do you serve in parish ministries? Do you come to parish-wide events? Are you taking steps to improve your spiritual life and further study our Catholic Faith? The Commitment Card you received in the mail offers suggestions for how you can take a step forward in all these areas. Don’t forget to bring your Commitment Card to Mass on October 29/30 weekend.

Denise Costello answered the call to the Stewardship way of life by her involvement as a school parent and especially attending the St. Patrick’s Dinner for years. She passed away at a relatively young age of 65 and yet those years of her life were lived fully. We had her Funeral mass and burial last Tuesday. Thank you Denise for what you have shared with us by giving your time, talent and treasure. Our sympathy goes to her husband Tom, her sons, Thomas and Michael, daughters-in-law, and four grandsons and extended family in New York and Ireland.

This coming Friday, October 28th is the 6th Annual Saint John Vianney Luncheon to benefit the Priests Retirement Fund of the Archdiocese of San Francisco. The Luncheon raises funds to pay for medical expenses, and assisted living and nursing care for our retired priests. The Luncheon also provides us with the unique opportunity to show our appreciation to our retired priests for their life work and dedication to our Catholic community.

You can support the Priests Retirement Fund by attending the luncheon or through individual donations.

At 75, the elderly pastor was finally retired and enjoying his one passion: fishing. He was sitting in his boat when he heard a voice cry, “Pick me up, pick me up!” He looked in the water and there, floating on a lily pad, was a frog.

The priest said: “Are you taking to me? “Yes,” the frog replied. “Pick me up, kiss me, and I’ll turn into a most beautiful woman you’ve ever seen. I’ll make sure that all your friends are envious and jealous because I’ll be your bride!”

The priest looked at the frog, reached over, and picked it up carefully. Then he dropped the frog into his front pocket. From the depths of the pocket, the frog cried out, “Are you nuts? Didn’t you hear what I said? Kiss me and I’ll be your beautiful bride.”

The priest opened his pocked, looked down at the frog, and said, “Nah. At my age it’s too late. I’d rather have a talking frog.”

An unknown author once wrote: “I’m retired – goodbye tension, hello pension.” You can retire from work, but not from the Stewardship way of life.

October is Respect Life Month What is 40 Days for Life? It is a community-based campaign that takes a determined, peaceful approach to showing local communities the consequences of abortion in their own neighborhoods, for their own friends and families. It puts into action a desire to cooperate with God in the carrying out of His plan for the end of abortion. It draws attention to the evil of abortion through the use of a three-point program: Prayer + Constant Vigil + Community Outreach.

As we enhance our parish’s Respect Life Ministry, we will plan to be active in the 40 Days of Life Campaign in the Fall and during Lent, starting next year.

Sacramental Preparations Late registration for children, youth, and adults who need to prepare for the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist, will end this month of October. Parents may see Sr. Cristina in the parish office during the week 10:00AM to 4:00PM.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) is held every Wednesday at 7:00-8:30PM in the Pastoral Center.

RCICY (Rite of Christian Initiation for Children and Youth) is held every Sunday, at 10:30AM to 12:00 Noon in the Pastoral Center, at 1555 39th Avenue, next to the church and grotto.

List of Sick Parishioners in the bulletin Please help to update it. If the person is already well and does not need to be in the list, please call Jackie in the parish office. We usually include those who are terminally ill, permanently homebound, have a chronic sickness that cause disability, and those who have undergone recent surgery. The parish ask for the grace of healing, patience, and consolation. May all the sick share patiently in Christ’s redemptive suffering. Thank you for your cooperation.

Faith Formation Conference 2016 will be on December 2 and 3rd at San Jose Convention Center. The theme is “Connect In Christ”. Anyone who is interested may register at www.faithformationconference.com.

Canossian Sisters We are women, fascinated by the Greatest Love of the Crucifies One. We share life and prayer with one another as we journey, in humility and charity, with all, following the spirituality of St. Magdalen of Canossa. We share this Charism of Charity with the Lay Canossians, men and women who find themselves in a wide variety of ecclesial and social settings, responding to the emergent needs of the poor and the vulnerable. Together we give our creative response to the Gospel’s challenge. We are committed to make Jesus known and loved! For more information contact Sr. Cristina. Thank you.

Holy Name School Newsletter
October 18, 2016

PRINCIPAL’S LETTER
Dear Holy Name families,

We hope you had a relaxing weekend. Congratulations to all of our volleyball players who won the Holy Name/ St. Cecilia’s Tournament this past Sunday!

In this week’s newsletter you will receive a pamphlet about the Kinsa FLUency Thermometer Program. To redeem your free thermometer, please go to getkinsa.com and follow the 5 step directions. The more Preschool-8th grade families who redeem their thermometers, the more we can stay on top of the health of our students. Please remember to keep your child at home if they are not feeling well so we can reduce the spread of germs-thanks for your help in keeping all of our students and teachers healthy!

All students have received their Typewriting Program login information so students can now work on their typing skills and accuracy while at home. If you have any questions please see Mr. Flaviani.

Next week we will have an Open House for all interested and prospective families on Thursday, October 27th from 6-7:30PM. Please encourage your non-Holy Name friends to take a look at our school!

Thank you,
Natalie Cirigliano, Principal

The Book Fair will be held during Parent Teacher Conference week, November 7-10th in Holy Name’s Music room. More details to come! Come to our Book Fair and be involved in shaping your child’s reading habits! Thank you!

BIG, BIG THANKS
The Holy Name Gabriel Project would like to express our sincere gratitude to Holy Name parishioners and Alice Seher and Holy Name pre-school parents for your immediate response to our appeal of baby items for three homeless moms. They were so thrilled to receive your gifts for their new born babies. On their behalf, thank you so much for your generosity. May the Lord fill you all and your family with abundant blessings forever!
