Weekly Bible Reflection /Small Faith Sharing Group Every Tuesday morning at 10:00-11:00 AM we gather in the meeting room of the Pastoral Center. The topic is the Bible readings of the coming Sunday Liturgy. This meeting is informal, the discussion is lively and the participants are friendly and welcoming. A simple breakfast is served at 9:30 AM while the group socializes. Everyone is welcome to this sacred space, as we prepare to know the Word of God more deeply, and understand how we can live accordingly.

Youth Ministry The first meeting of our Youth Ministry Team for the Pastoral Year 2018-2019 is this Sunday, September 16th. It will be held at 11:00 AM in the Mercy Room of the Pastoral Center. We will plan activities for young people in our parish, and look at the calendar for monthly gathering. We invite young adults to join our team, and help “empower the youth of our parish become wholesome individuals of the community and society at large” (cfr. Mission Statement of Holy Name of Jesus Parish Youth Ministry). Please contact Sr. Cristina for more information.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) We invite you or people you know to explore the Catholic faith and practices in an hour-long weekly session with Sr. Cristina and RCIA catechists. We will arrange the sessions at your convenience. Please contact Sr. Cristina about this important matter.

We are blessed with a team of catechists who live their vocation as “Educators of the Faith”. This year our Religious Education classes are taught and guided by: Hilda Dela Cruz (Coordinator), George Quim, Alejandra Brito, Rebecca Carrasco, Rosvida Uskert, Ding Carbonel, Lina Hidalgo, Reenu John, Jacqueline Tom. Lectio Divina

Read: The theme of violence and conflict permeates the readings today. The wicked cannot stand the righteous and plot the latter’s downfall. Jesus prophesizes about his own suffering and death at the hands of the enemies. James provides an insight into all violence—it is the result of jealous cravings and disordered desires.

Reflect: Competition, jealousy and violence happen only when the other is seen as an entity separate and different from us. If one is able to see the underlying unity of reality and the deep correctedness we have with everyone and everything else, this drive to be first and beat the rest will subside. Further it will also help us deal with violence meted out to us with compassion and non violence, as Jesus could.

Pray: We shall pray for reduction of violence and promotion of peace in the world.

Act: Meditate on the interconnectedness of everything.

HOW DO WE TREAT THE MESSENGER?

Let’s not be too hasty in defining who is “the wicked one” and who (namely us) is just! We are very quick to label others as evil, because we tend to label ourselves as good guys. We don’t

TODAY’S SECOND COLLECTION IS FOR THE PRIESTS’ RETIREMENT FUND

“I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them in also.

They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd.” - John 10:16

The Archdiocese is blessed to have many retired priests who have dedicated their lives to ministry and care for others. Without your support we would not be able to fully cover the living and medical expenses of our retired priests. To that end, the Archdiocese of San Francisco established the Priests Retirement Fund. As healthcare costs continue to rise, the Priests Retirement Fund provides financial stability for our retired priests and ensures a secure future for our active priests.

Two opportunities are available to show our gratitude to our retired priests for their many years of faithful service:

- Make a generous gift to the Priests Retirement Fund Collection at Masses throughout the Archdiocese this weekend, September 22 and 23. [Envelopes are on the pews].

- Attend and/or sponsor a retired priest to attend the Eighth Annual Masses throughout the Archdiocese this weekend, September 22 and 23. [Envelopes are on the pews].

You may drop off your gift to Holy Name or mail to the Archdiocese of San Francisco—Priests Retirement Fund at 1 Peter Yorke Way, San Francisco, CA 94109.
