Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, Jesus said the blessing over them, broke them and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

This Sunday, the Church celebrates the Feast of Corpus Christi, also known as The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Corpus Christi, in Latin, means Body of Christ. This Feast commemorates the immense gift of the Eucharist in our lives and in the Church. Corpus Christi Sunday allows us to focus on celebrating the real presence of Christ – Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity – in the bread and wine.

Each year, we carry the Blessed Eucharist or the Body of Christ around the block after the 11:30AM mass. We also have the small procession inside the church after every mass followed by Benediction. It is a way to honor the Precious Body of Christ and also a way to bless the people.

Holy Name is so blessed to have people who are good stewards in offering their time, talent and resources for the good of our community. First, I would like to commend our Environment Committee. With the absence of Cres Payumo and Cecilia Bermudez, who have been chairing this committee and who are both on vacation, Julie Lai stepped up together with the rest of the members Maria Rubino, Norma Agbayani, Pat Relampagos and Carmen Casim. They have beautifully decorated the church, particularly the altar during these great feasts of the church. Thank you Ladies!

We also thank Tri Nguyen and Julie Quock for coordinating our Altar Servers and Youth Ministry Picnic at San Bruno City Park last Saturday. We also thank the other families besides the Nguyens and Quocks who came and helped: Bruce and Diane McKie, Leo and Len- cy Nascimento, John and Erin Grogan, Cecile Sabater. We hope to extend this picnic to all the ministries next year. The more the merrier!

Last Sunday, our parishioners and visitors were treated with popcorn after each mass in celebration of Father's Day. What a bright idea to pop out to St. Francis' Garden for popcorn on Pop's day. Our fathers received a blessing at the end of the mass and a prayer card. Thank you to our Stewardship Committee led by Ricky Inting and Cecile Sabater.

Thank you also to all those who donated sandwiches for the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Our Youth Ministry had been making sandwiches previously for St. Vincent de Paul and we also thank them. I am sure our poor brothers and sisters who are the recipients of these sandwiches will be so happy and appreciated of our gesture of kindness.

A little guy sat in a cafe one day eating his lunch. Three bikers walked into the cafe, looked around, and decided to have some fun with the little guy.

They sat at his table. One of them took his coffee away from him and drank it down. The next one took his sandwich away and ate it down. The third biker took the little guy’s pie and ate it down. Without saying a word, the little guy got up, went to the cash register, paid his bill, and left. One of the bikers looked at the waitress, and said, “Did you see that? We took away his coffee, his sandwich, and his pie! And he didn’t say a word! He sure ain’t much of a man!”

The waitress turned to them and said, “He ain’t much of a truck driver, either. He just ran over three motorcycles in the parking lot!”

Reflection
The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus
During the month of June, we remember the Heart of Christ in a special way. In Christ’s name, reach out to the unloved and suffering. Volunteer to clean up a local soup kitchen. At a hospital chapel, pray for those in the building who are suffering and dying that day. Give money to a homeless person. Do whatever you think the heart of Christ calls you to do. If the Sacred Heart is to keep beating in our world, we must be the workers of Love.

JUNE 23, 2019 | THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

In the mid 1980s in churches in Paris I saw for the first time reconciliation rooms that had ceiling to floor glass. The priest sat at a candle-lit table and the penitent knelt behind the priest or sat with him at the table. Restoring the public dimension to the Sacrament increased its power and witness.

Last year in our community we renovated our chapel. One of several things we did was put glass doors on the tabernacle, install a diffused light inside and reserve the chalice.

The overall effect was startling. For the first time in my life I could see at all times the elements toward which I direct my devotion.

The reaction of others was interesting too. One person protested that "you can see the Blessed Sacrament and the chalice looks ready to drink," another felt that "the wafers we reserved should not be broken, but be one complete host" and still a third objected that it "looks like real food."

These were curious reactions given what we celebrate today, the feast of Corpus Christi. The devotion we as Catholics have to Christ's presence in the Eucharist is precisely caught up in the meal he left us. Therefore it is right that the food we share and venerate should be on display, should look inviting and be broken, for this is what Jesus did at his final supper and what he offers us as gifts—himself, broken and poured out in love.

Each time I pray in front of our new tabernacle I am struck by the power of these elements as the definitive symbol of Jesus' presence in our world. Not only in grand cathedrals or libraries of words does God visit us. Not only in prophets' speeches or laws set in stone. But in simple gifts of broken bread and poured wine. And at these times I recall that the action of being broken and poured out is the core of what we believe: our God poured himself out in love for us in Christ; Jesus was broken unto death for us so that we might be made whole; the Spirit gives us strength and courage to face the daily breakings and pourings that make up our lives and every time anyone, anywhere shares bread or passes a cup with those in need, our God is really present.

Praying there also reminds me that following the Trinity's example, this pattern is repeated in all faithful Christian lives too. The martyrs, the saints and all of those we know who have gone before us, having led lives of selfless devotion, continue to embody the Body and Blood of Christ we venerate.

And so to us. When we come forward, when we say "Amen" and receive into our hands the Bread of Life and the Cup of Salvation we too take on to ourselves the invitation to become what we receive: a body broken in love, blood poured out in hope that the world may be saved from itself and find life to the full in Christ.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We owe today’s beautiful feast to a valiant woman who suffered a great deal to establish a feast out of her love for the Eucharist. Juliana was a nun in Belgium in the thirteenth century. She served in a hospital for lepers. She became convinced through her prayer that the liturgical year was incomplete because it had no feast for the Eucharist. Her efforts were not welcome, and a supervising priest sought to punish her for promoting a feast that nobody wanted. He even had her accused of financial mismanagement and banished her from her convent.

Shortly after she was exiled, the bishop approved the feast. It quickly spread through Europe. In those days, people very seldom received Holy Communion, and so the processions through the streets with the eucharistic bread not only led to an awareness of Christ’s hunger to be with us, but prepared the way for a deeper desire to receive Christ’s Body and Blood in more frequent Communion. The feast grew rapidly, but Juliana disappeared into poverty and a hidden life. She ended her days as an anchoress, a woman living in seclusion in a room attached to a parish church. Imagine her delight at seeing us gathered at the table of the Lord on this day, aware of Christ’s presence in our midst, sharing fully in Christ’s Body and Blood. Our celebration today invests her struggle and sorrows with dignity and meaning.
