PARISH MISSAL STATEMENT
March 15, 2020
While we were still sinners Christ died for us. — Romans 5:8

AVAILABILITY God does not ask for our ability or our inability, but our availability. —Anonymous
Dear Parishioners and friends of Holy Name of Jesus Church:

In our desire to prevent the spreading of the novel corona virus, now known as COVID-19, we are taking extra precautionary measures and disseminating important information related to this virus and related sickness. The use of good common sense and the exercise of courtesy is very important in achieving our goal to protect ourselves against COVID19, flu and cold.

+ Please be reminded that the obligation to attend Sunday Mass and other Days of Obligation does not apply to those who are ill, especially those who suffer from a contagious disease. It is a sign of consideration for others that those with flu-like symptoms remain at home until you are fully recovered. You can still give glory and praise to God while staying at home.

+ We will livestream via Facebook Live a Mass every Sunday for those who are unable to make it physically to church. Go to: https://www.facebook.com/holynamedjesussf. In addition, Mass is broadcasted each Sunday morning at 6:00AM on Channels 8, 20 (Comcast), KTSF 26 as well as on EWTN.

+ Holy Water fonts and stoups will not be used at this time.

+ We will refrain from shaking hands when greeting each other including at the Sign of Peace at mass and holding hands during the Our Father. We can always greet each other and offer a sign of peace with a sweet smile, a nod with a smile, a bow or hand gestures.

+ We have a procedure in place that priest/ celebrant, altar servers, and ministers use an alcohol-based anti-bacterial solution before and after distributing hosts.

+ We have suspended the giving of the Precious Blood at communion. We further ask you before and after distributing hosts.

+ During communion, Priests and ministers who give a blessing to an individual will make the sign of the Cross in the air above the person’s head, rather than touching the head.

+ Please cover your mouth and nose with clean tissue when you cough or sneeze. If you have allergies, make sure you bring clean tissue and have enough supply of it. If you don’t have tissue, cough and sneeze into your sleeve or the bend of your elbow instead, not into your hands.

+ We will be cleaning and disinfecting areas inside the church especially those that frequently come into contact with hands, such as tops of pews, door knobs, etc.

+ Please maintain proper hygiene by regularly washing your hands with soap and/or anti-bacterial solution.

We know you understand these protective measures are for the best interest of everyone and are only temporary. We continue to pray for those affected with the COVID-19 around the world as we also pray for the best of health of our parishioners.

Let us always seek the intercession of our Blessed Mother who always looks over us, her children, with love and care as we lift all our anxieties and fears in the most Holy Name of Jesus.

LENTEN REFLECTION

In her book, “Showings”, St. Julian of Norwich calls God our clothing, who wraps and enfolds us in a tender love. God, she says, never promised that we wouldn’t be tempest-tossed and frightened. He did promise he will never let us go. We, too, are called to a tender attentiveness to each other in challenging times. We are called to realize that we are blessed no less than Abram was, so that God’s blessings might continue to overflow, that we might be blessings to all the world. We are called to do as Christ did on the mountaintop and reach out to our sisters and brothers living in fear and trembling – to never let them go. When has God reached out to you with a tender attentiveness? How do you see the ways in which God has blessed you spilling over and reaching out to the larger community you live in? -Michelle Francel-Donnay

Thank you, Lay Canossians with the leadership of Jim Regan, Susan Logan and Marilù Illenberger, for preparing, organizing and hosting the quarterly Mass and reception for the sick and homebound parishioners, families and friends. This is a faithful adherence to the desire of St. Magdalene of Canossa, to love and serve those who are in need. We thank Fr. Arnold for celebrating the Eucharist and the Anointing of the Sick; to Griselda McDonald and Madeleine Morten for making the Liturgy lively with music and singing. For generous Lay Canossians who donated gifts for our participants. God bless you all. Blessed Lenten Season!

Avail of our parish libraries in the meeting room and the Mercy room in the Pastoral Center . A good Lenten practice Choose a spiritual reading book that will enhance your prayer life during this holy season. You may choose from our parish libraries , or ask Sr. Cristina for specific topics you want to reflect on. This is good as a substitute for watching TV, browsing the internet, or reading secular magazines or books. A worthy sacrificial offering, as well. Thanks to parishioners who donated good and new books on: lives of saints, Ignatian/ Franciscan/Carmelite/Benedictine/Canossian spiritualities. Everyone is welcome! Sign out reading materials and enjoy a spiritual enrichment!

Register for Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) If you or someone you know want to become Catholic, contact Sr. Cristina in the parish office. The process will begin on Sept. 2, 2020, at 7:00-8:30PM in the Pastoral Center. The RCIA is for people who want either to learn about Catholics or to become Catholic. If you are in an interfaith marriage and are already actively involved in a church of different denomination, you may want to understand your family’s Catholic faith better. If you are not connected to any faith community, you are most welcome to inquire with us.

Lay Canossians You are invited to observe at the monthly meetings, first Sunday at 2:00-4:00PM in the Flanagan Center . Ask Jim Regan or Sr. Cristina for more information.

THIRST

Each time today’s Gospel story is read, I can’t help but think of the many television commercials I’ve seen depicting perspiring athletes lifting a beverage to their lips while the scorching sun beats down on them. Our culture has definite ideas about how to quench thirst. Today, those ideas are turned upside down. The Samaritan woman operates, initially, on the TV commercial level. She asks Jesus for the flowing water so that she will not have to keep coming to the well. Jesus then talks about what real thirst is, and how he, and he alone, can quench that thirst. Lent calls us to find those places deep within ourselves where we thirst. In our thirst, as did the Israelites, we cry out to God asking for springs of living water. Deep down we know that only the Lord can satisfy these thirsts.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT  MARCH 15, 2020

Father Jim was invited by Caritas, the Catholic Development Agency, to travel to the Philippines and see the excellent work they were doing with the monies collected in their Lenten appeal.

When he arrived in Manila he was asked if he would like to have some exposure to the real lives of the people Caritas was helping. It was decided that for two days he would live with a family on Smoky Mountain. Smoky Mountain no longer exists, but for over thirty years it was home to nearly ten thousand people. Smoky Mountain was the refuse tip for metro-Manila. It got its name from the smoldering pile of rubbish dumped there every day. People lived on three sides of this mountain of waste and made their homes and livelihood from the city’s refuse.

Jim had heard of Smoky Mountain, but nothing prepared him for the reality. He smelt it before he saw it and when he saw it he couldn’t believe it. The crest of the hill was indeed billowing smoke, and canals of water surrounded it. Running water was only available at public pumps. Over the canals were semi-public cubicles where people showered and went to the open toilets. As the bulldozers shoveled the day’s deposit into the mountainside, the residents picked through the collection to see what could be salvaged. Homes were made of every weather-resistant material imaginable.

Jim met the Jesuits who looked after the Smoky Mountain parish. They were campaigning to have it shut down. The parish priest took him to meet the family with whom he would be staying. On a hot, humid afternoon he started the climb to Bing’s home. There were children everywhere. Dirty, energetic, scavenging children. His heart was close to breaking, his stomach was dry-retching.

When he arrived at Bing’s neatly kept home he was given a warm welcome. Bing saw that Jim was hot and bothered by his new surroundings and offered him a drink of water. Nothing prepared him for this dilemma: how far was he prepared to share in the life of the poor? All Jim could think of were the diseases he could catch from drinking water from the pump. As thirsty as he was he declined the offer, knowing that later he would privately gulp down one of the bottles of water in his backpack. Jim watched as the glasses of water were served on a tray. As he chatted to the family about Smoky Mountain he felt a fraud. Bing’s daughter emerged with a sealed bottle of water and proceeded to fill up all the glasses. On seeing the bottle Jim had a change of mind and accepted the water. Bing then produced a plastic glass in a sealed package for Jim’s use. Flushed with embarrassment, all he could think of was Jesus and the Woman at the Well.

At that famous well Jesus enters the world of a poor Samaritan woman who has been dumped five times by the men who married her. By asking for a drink, by engaging her in conversation, by understanding her situation, and offering her a way out of the cycle of emotional abuse in which she was caught, Jesus gives her the greatest gift of all: personal dignity. This changes her life and turns her into one of the earliest missionaries in John’s Gospel.

Although separated by time and space, a drink of water helped a Samaritan woman and Fr Jim face up to the embarrassment of their worlds, their quick and inaccurate judgments and reassess the choices that could lead them to life. Both of them recognized that no matter how good the gift of water was that day, the unknown and unexpected Giver of the gift was so much greater.

May this Eucharist help us do the same.
