lifting of Covid-19 mandates in the coming months, there will be some changes affecting several parishes in the Archdiocese particularly in our Sunset Deanery.

I have accepted a request from the Archbishop to take up a new assignment as Administrator of Holy Name until the Archbishop finds an appropriate pastor. Fr. Dan will continue as pastor of St. Anne. He is no stranger to Holy Name, his family belongs to Holy Name and Holy Name is his home. His additional assignment at Holy Name is an example of the creative ways that priests of this Archdiocese, and at dioceses around the country, are learning to stretch ourselves to match the needs of our communities.

When we can, know that I’ll be inviting Fr. Nascimento to connect with our parish. Of course, again, Covid-19 mandates are making this impossible, except online at this time. We will make use of this technology this spring to bring his own message to you.

Please know, again, of my deep affection and appreciation for each of you. We have done much together, and I know you will open your hearts to Fr. Dan as he serves his home parish of Holy Name.

In some related updates, Fr. Roger Gustafson, currently the pastor of St. Brendan, has accepted a request from the Archbishop to take up a new assignment as Pastor of St. Hilary Parish. He has been serving at St. Brendan Parish in recent years, but is also looking forward to returning to Marin County, and specifically to St. Hilary where he spent his first years of priesthood. Like Fr. Nascimento, he will be taking care of another parish as Administrator of Star of the Sea Parish in Sausalito.

Fr. Mike Quinn has accepted a request from the Archbishop to take up a new assignment as St. Brendan Parish, effective July 1, 2020. Fr. Mike Quinn who served as our deacon (at Holy Name) prior to his ordination is currently the pastor of Star of the Sea, Sausalito and is looking forward to his change, that comes after seven years serving the people of God in Sausalito and back to St. Brendan’s.

FAZtor’s Notes:
By: Fr. Arnold Zamora

Last weekend, I announced during my online mass about the change of assignments for priests working in the Archdiocese. I also mentioned that I would be putting my announcement in today’s bulletin. So, here it is: Depending on the

How are all of you doing? In the previous articles, I wrote on issues involving the health of our bodies, minds, and souls. I will continue to do that, but with a different twist. We are in a unique position, as Christians, during this Easter Season, to get closer to God, believe it or not, as a result of this pandemic. We are an Easter people and we rejoice that our Loving God has truly Risen, Alleluia!!!

Pentecost is approaching and how are we preparing for the coming of the Holy Spirit into our lives? As we continue our “shelter-in-place” here are some thoughts I wish for all of you to ponder and read—just your minds to look at this time, not so much on your limitations, but on a Golden opportunity to reconnect and enrich your relationship with our Lord. God is so patient with us. He still finds many ways to speak to us so that we will understand how much He loves us and longs to be with us forever. For example, when feelings of peace or hope or expectancy well up as you ponder Scripture (practicing Lectio Divina), that is God speaking to you. When creative ideas or resolutions to issues you are dealing with come to mind while you sit in prayer that is God speaking to you. When you are filled with wonder and praise for the Lord as you watch a glorious sunset (assuming you all live in the Sunset district, ha-ha), or a humming bird through your window, that is God speaking to you. He could even speak to you in a dream or through a beautiful piece of art or music (which we all have at home). The important thing is to expect that God will speak to you. You will learn to recognize His voice as you spend time carefully listening to Him. Sometimes His voice is loud or booming, but so often it’s gentle, simple, and quiet (here’s where the shelter-in-place helps us). God is good and patient and He will keep speaking until you understand what He is saying. In the next few articles, we will be looking at and getting reacquainted with the Holy Spirit.

To Your health and well being,
Angela Testani R.N. Lay Canossian

Separation is not easy and more often it creates sadness. At this writing, I just received a text that a good family friend in LA just passed away and the cause of death might be related to COVID. Please pray for the soul of Henry Glodoveza. On the lighter side, I may be gone but we can still see each other. I have received many kind words of gratitude and appreciation, like the eulogies at a funeral. The good thing is that I got to hear them. As Colleen Durkin, our parish secretary, said, “once a Holy Namer, always a Holy Namer!”

I hope in some way or another, I have touched your lives as I believe that if you leave a legacy of GOODNESS and KINDNESS to those who come into your life...

They will find it more difficult to erase you in their hearts...

- A smile is a sign of joy.
- A hug is a sign of love.
- A laugh is also a sign of love.

and

- A good person like you is a sign of GOD’s blessings.

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER
APRIL 26, 2020

With very good reason, the story of the road to Emmaus is thought to be the best parallel we have in the New Testament to our weekly celebration of the Eucharist. This idea could be a little surprising for some who might think the Last Supper would hold more similarities. Luke, however, reminds his community, who are like us, that even though they, like us, are prevented from seeing Jesus, they can still have a life-changing experience of his presence.

The disciples are on a journey of faith and Jesus meets them where they are, as they are. This is a critical detail in the story. Jesus listens to their expectations, hopes and disappointments and only after they have expressed the reality of their situation, does Christ open the scriptures to them. In doing so he takes their disillusionment and enables them to see the connections with the story of salvation. This leads them to hope. Even then, they do not recognize who Jesus is until he breaks the bread and in that action he is revealed as the one in whom they had been hoping. This experience drives them back to Jerusalem to witness to the power of Christ's resurrection.

Every Sunday as part of our journey of faith we embark on our road to Emmaus. There is never any point in us coming here pretending to be different from how we actually feel and who we are. God sees our hearts and minds and wants to meet us in the midst of our lives, whatever they may be like. The Emmaus story teaches us that Jesus firstly wants to listen to us before he wants us to listen to Him.

Emmaus, however, was not just about the disciples and their lives, in the same way that the Eucharist is not just about our lives either. Christ opens the scriptures to us each week so that we can make sense of our experience, see the ways in which God is present and absent and recognize our own foolishness. As with the Emmaus disciples, we are welcomed to the table of the Lord where we recognize Christ in the breaking of the bread and the pouring of the cup. This meal enables us to go out from here and proclaim to all we meet that Christ is risen.

One of the things the Church values most deeply is its connection to the experience of the earliest Church. And rightly so. It's a great privilege for us to recall that what we do here each Sunday is built upon the faith and weekly celebration of countless generations.

And though, appropriately, many things can be different in various cultural settings for the Eucharist throughout the world, several elements always stay the same. It is the Risen Christ who accompanies us, listens to us, opens our minds to the scriptures, hosts us at his table, and sends us out to tell the world that He has been raised from the dead.

This is the best way to understand ourselves as "traditional Catholics." We share with thousands of generations the same fire of God's faithful love burning in our hearts as we are welcomed here each week, are listened to, taught, nourished, and sent out to do our bit for the coming of Christ's Kingdom.

CORONA VIRUS COVID-19 PRAYER

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.
We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son, as you did at the wedding in Cana.
Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation and world, and for all our families and loved ones, the protection of your holy angels, that we may be spared the worst of this illness.
For those already afflicted,
we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful,
wipe away their tears and help them to trust.
In this time of trial and testing,
teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.
We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy.
Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.

AMEN.

SPiritual Communion

What is spiritual communion? St. Thomas Aquinas described it as “an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the most holy sacrament and lovingly embrace him” at a time or in circumstances when we cannot receive him in sacramental Communion. With the absence of public Masses in the Archdiocese of San Francisco due to the shelter in place order, the opportunity for receiving spiritual communion is particularly appropriate. Spiritual communion needs no special instruction; it only requires the same disposition as the actual reception of the sacrament and a turning to Jesus with the heart. No particular prayer or formulary is required; however, to help focus a proper intention, recitation of a prayer is suggested. One of the most popular is that composed by St. Alphonsus Liguori: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire you with all my heart. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already in my heart and unite myself to you completely. Please do not let me ever by separated from you.

STAY WITH US, LORD

Walk with us, Lord,
along the road of resurrection!
Explain for us, so slow to believe,
the things that Scripture says of you.
Break the bread of the Eucharist with us
whenever we share our lives
with our brothers and sisters.
Stay with us
each time night approaches
and the daylight fades in our hearts!
