THIRD SUNDAY OF Easter

THE TWO DISCIPLES RECOUNTED WHAT HAD TAKEN PLACE ON THE WAY AND HOW JESUS WAS MADE KNOWN TO THEM IN THE BREAKING OF BREAD.

Luke 24:35
Third Sunday of Easter

You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence. — Acts 2:28

ON THE ROAD

One central metaphor employed to describe the Christian life is a journey. In today’s second reading, Peter addresses the early Christian community: “Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning” (1 Peter 1:17). When we think of a journey, we normally think of some kind of movement from point A to point B. The Christian journey, begun in the waters of baptism (point A) has as its ultimate destination eternal life with God in heaven (point B). Unfortunately we find ourselves on all kinds of detours along the way. Because of sin, we make foolish turns and sometimes seem unable to detect the presence of the Lord. Today’s story of the two disciples on their way to Emmaus illustrates for us the fact that, even when we are dejected or on one of our many detours, the Lord is there, walking right beside us.

FAZtor's Notes
By Fr. Arnold Zamora
A lot of people did a lot of sacrificing during Lent. They gave up chocolate; they abstained from eating meat, refrained from alcoholic drinks and even stayed away from gossip. They called it their sacrifice for Lent. Now that Lent is over, everything is back to the way it used to be.

There was also a lot of giving during Lent. People went to church, received Communion, prayed the daily Rosary, went to confession, and just were kind and generous. They call it their good deeds for Lent. Not that Lent is over; everything is back to the way it used to be.

A lady went to confessions every week and each time she would always mention gossiping as a part of her confession. The priest advised: It’s Lent, stop gossiping and if you are successful, come back and say “Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.” For the rest of Lent, the lady stopped gossiping and came back to the priest saying: “Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.” But after Easter, she came back saying to the priest: “As it was in the beginning, is now and will forever be!”

The burglar that has been stealing money from our candle boxes is back as well. This is the same guy I testified about in court, as a witness to his crime. He was sentenced to 5 years in prison. He served two and a half years in prison and is now on parole. But as soon as he got out of prison, he went back to stealing money from the churches again.

A few weeks ago, he was spotted again at the Blessed Virgin Mary Shrine, fishing for money from the candle box. On Palm Sunday, some parishioners saw him trying to steal money from the candle boxes at the back of the church. As he was standing at the back of the church waiting for a better opportunity, I approached him and asked him if he needed anything and could we help him. He said “No.” I made him aware that we saw what he was doing and we were watching him. After a while, he was gone.

We are writing an incident report each time something like this happens. So, let us know if you see some untoward incidents or illegal activities around the church. Last Monday, a homeless man was lying upstairs in the church balcony and would not leave. Every now and then, we have homeless people sleeping overnight outside the church. There is always the heart inside us that takes pity, but there is also a mind that worries about security. Regardless, my question is always “How can we help them?” Most of the time when we talk to them, they say we are helpful. It’s sometimes hard to help those who don’t want help for themselves.

A woman sat down on a park bench, glanced around and decided to stretch out her legs on the seat and relax. After awhile a beggar came up to her and said, “Hello, Luv, how about us going for a walk together?”

“How dare you!” said the woman, “I’m not one of your cheap pickups!”

“Well, then,” said the beggar, “What are you doing on my bed?”

For the good of the order, our magnificent church organ is back after we spent an enormous amount for its repair. We’d better listen to it and enjoy the concert this Sunday, at 2PM.
