Welcome to Holy Name!
We are a Stewardship Parish! If you worship with us each week or are new to our neighborhood, please register online at: http://holynamesf.org/parishregistration. You will be on our mailing list and let us know you are willing to support your parish through your time, talent and treasure – the privilege of every Catholic.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT
HOLY NAME OF JESUS PARISH SAN FRANCISCO is a welcoming multicultural and liturgical community that celebrates our Christian Faith. In the spirit of the “Joy of the Gospel” we work together promoting Catholic values and teachings.
Our parish encourages a strong devotion to our Blessed Mother Mary, who gives us an example of faithful discipleship and a generous stewardship way of life.

“...the Gentiles are co-heirs, members of the same body, and co-partners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel.” (Ephesians 3:6)

Today we celebrate that Christ came to all of us, not just the Hebrews. He has given each of us unique gifts. We all have different yet equally valuable roles to play in the Body of Christ. Pray daily and ask God how He wants you to use your gifts so that we may all “be one”.

The Epiphany of the Lord
The Epiphany of the Lord
January 6, 2019
Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem!
Your light has come,
the glory of the Lord shines upon you.

-- Isaiah 60:1

TODAY’S READINGS
First Reading -- Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! The Lord shines upon you (Isaiah 60:1-6).
Psalm -- Lord, every nation on earth will adore you (Psalm 72).
Second Reading -- The Gentiles are coheirs, copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel (Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6).
Gospel -- Magi from the east arrived, looking for the newborn king of the Jews (Matthew 2:1-12).

The Last Year of Confusion. The new months varied due to errors in the math at the time. The Julian Calendar Christmas. And Caesar was Julian calendar Christmas. And Caesar thought he had brought confusion to an end!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION
Monday of this week is Christmas Day in Russia and in much of the Orthodox world. This curious difference in schedule has a lot to do with how calendars have been developed and changed over the years. In the year 45 B.C. Julius Caesar gave the empire his Julian Calendar, with the winter solstice on January 6. This put an end to a system in which officials called pontiffs were able to tweak the calendar by adding extra days in as needed. He invented two new months at that time, December and January; and in order to correct the mess the pontiffs had made, forced a year of 445 days on the empire in what he named The Last Year of Confusion. The new months varied in number of days according to a complex schedule, but the calendar was still off by nearly twelve minutes a year, and lost a full day every 130 years.

Pope Gregory XIII reformed the calendar in 1583, but not everyone appreciated his efforts. England held out for two hundred years. The year 1700 was a leap year in England, but not in France; they were eleven days apart! George Washington was really born on February 11; when the Gregorian calendar was finally adopted in the English colonies shortly before the Revolution, he had to move his birthday to February 22. Now the calendars are thirteen days apart, which accounts for Russia’s Julian Calendar Christmas. And Caesar thought he had brought confusion to an end!

FAZtor’s Notes
by Fr. Arnold Zamora

Welcome to 2019! The song our HS School Third Graders were singing at their Christmas concert is still playing in my mind: “Another year over, a new one just begun... let’s hope it’s a good one without any fear.” Here’s to another year!

If Christmas is celebrated in 12 days, just like the Christmas song that we sing, the feast of Epiphany celebrated this Sunday, January 6th would mark the end of the Christmas season. On this day, we have the Epiphany Proclamation announcing the dates of Easter and the movable feasts of the church:

Know, dear brethren (brothers and sisters), that, as we have rejoiced at the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, so by leave of God’s mercy we announce to you also the joy of his Resurrection, who is our Savior.

On the sixth day of March will fall Ash Wednesday, and the beginning of the fast of the most sacred Lenten season.

On the twenty-first day of April you will celebrate with joy Easter Day, the Paschal feast of our Lord Jesus Christ.

[In those places where the Ascension is observed on Thursday: On the thirtieth day of May will be the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ.]

[In those places where the Ascension is transferred to the Seventh Sunday of Easter: On the second day of June will be the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ.]

On the ninth day of June, the feast of Pentecost.

On the twenty-third day of June, the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

On the first day of December, the First Sunday of the Advent of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom is honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen. [USCCB]

I always feel it is quite a blessing that the Feast of the Holy Name of Jesus falls at the very start of the year, January 3rd. So, we celebrated our parish Feast day last Thursday with our school children in attendance. Last Thursday was also their first day of school after the break. What a better way to start the year for our school.

I will also begin this year with a Retreat. The priests in our archdiocese are required to take an annual Retreat. Usually, we have this annual retreat in June together with our local clergy. But this year, I was given the special privilege and permission to attend the St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology 2019 West Coast Priest Conference this week in La Jolla, CA within the Diocese of San Diego. This will serve as my annual retreat with the theme: A Priest Forever: Christ and the New Testament Priesthood. Please pray for me that this retreat will be a very fruitful spiritual, intellectual and physical refreshment.

After the large breakfast meals for 9 days after the Misa de Gallo and the many Christmas parties and invitations, I told myself that starting in the 1970s.

Specific Ways Catholics Can Evangelize

1) Be aware that everyone each day is called to conversion. Even long-time Catholics have an on-going responsibility to regularly examine their relationship to God, others, and themselves and to pray for the grace to improve these relationships. 2) Know the Catholic faith. By being knowledgeable in the faith, you encourage others to ask questions and seek answers. 3) Be at ease. Talk about the way the Lord touches your life. 4) Take the initiative by inviting alienated Catholics to return to church.

Here at Holy Name of Jesus we have various faith formation programs for adults, classes for preparing adult Catholics for the Sacrament of Confirmation, and the RCIA process. Please ask Sr. Cristina for more information.

Fil-Am Club has transitioned to Holy Name of Jesus Fil-Am Ministry

This means there will be no more monthly meetings, membership fees, set of officers, Constitution and By-laws. The exclusive nature of a Club has given way to a broader participation in parish activities initiated by the Fil-Am Ministry. The coordinators are Ramsey Ramos and Freda Motak. We thank them both for accepting this appointment from Fr. Arnold. This ministry will continue to plan and organize social and religious events such as, Valentine’s Day party, Fourth of July, Christ the King, Parol Presentation at the Cathedral at the beginning of December, Misa de Gallo/Simbang Gabi, and representing our parish at other archdiocesan gatherings for Fil-Am Ministries.

 ramsey continues to maintain facebook posts on various relevant information. If you have more questions regarding this matter, please ask Sr. Cristina. We thank all past officers of the Fil-Am Club from its beginning in the 1970s.

Archdiocese of San Francisco
ARCHDIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL 2018

Thank you to all who sent in their generous donation to the 2018 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal. As of 12/26/2018 we have received $70,526.00, surpassing our goal of $66,137.00 by $4,389.00. All donations received above our goal will come back to Holy Name Parish.

BLESSED FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

REFLECTION

“There is a tradition in Latin America and in Hispanic communities in the United States that on El Dia de los Reyes, the “Day of the Kings”, a small plastic baby Jesus is hidden in the cake baked especially for this feast day. The figure is nestled in the dough, signifying the effort to hide the child Jesus from the evil intentions of King Herod. As the cake is cut, the slicing knife represents the danger posed to the infant Jesus by the cruel king... These traditions make tangible both the danger inherent in the revelation of Christ and the excitement of the hidden designs of God manifest.”

REFLECTION:

Recently some Christian scientists got to work trying to explain the star that led the wise men to Bethlehem. They came up with a complicated, and no doubt plausible, astronomical theory about how a certain brilliant star may have appeared around the time of the birth of Jesus. Though I was intrigued by their methods, I wondered why they bothered. Matthew's wandering star is not about astronomy. It's religious shorthand for describing how the heavens preside over and guide the events of the world. The image of a star is used in similar ways in the Books of Deuteronomy, Numbers, Isaiah, and the Psalms. This entire feast is all about symbols, not science. Reported by Hippolytus as early as the third century, it is celebrated twelve days after Christmas, the number itself echoing God's goodness in creating and recreating us.

The wise men's star is on a par with the other images Matthew uses. At the center of each of the first three chapters of his Gospel there is an extraordinary event. In chapter one Joseph hears the message of an angel in a dream. In chapter two the wise men find Jesus by following a star. And by chapter three the heavens open and God speaks at the baptism of the Lord. By any standards that's quite an opening to a biography! It's all about the manifestation, or epiphany, of God's glory in the world.

The Feast of the Epiphany is not an ancient version of Halley's comet. It is about how God's glory changes human hearts. T.S. Eliot got this point in his poem "The Journey of the Magi."

"Birth or death? There was a Birth, certainly,
We had evidence and no doubt. I had seen birth and death,
But had thought they were different; this Birth was Hard and bitter agony for us, like Death, our death.
We returned to our places, these Kingdoms,
But no longer at ease here, in the old dispensation,
With an alien people clutching their gods.
I should be glad of another death."

And let's look carefully at where and for whom this glory is revealed. The first instance is to Joseph while he's in bed asleep. The second is to gentle astrologers who, by reporting their news to Herod, set up an immediate threat to Jesus. The third instance is to all those Jews who were coming to hear John the Baptist. Within three chapters of Matthew's Gospel the circles of God's glory revealed in Jesus become more public and change lives. The lives of Joseph, the star gazers, John the Baptist, and those who heard Jesus preach will never be the same again.

And so may this feast change our hearts and enable us to strive to recreate. © Richard Leonard SJ.
