Taking the five loaves
and the two fish,
and looking up to heaven,
Jesus said the blessing
over them,
broke them
and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

MEMORIAL DAY HOLIDAY
Monday, May 30, 2016 in observance of Memorial Day, the school and Parish offices will be closed. There’s one Mass at 9 AM in the Church.
A Woman came out of her house and saw Three Old Men with Long White Beards sitting in her front yard. She did not recognize them.

She said "I don't think I know you, but you must be hungry. Please come in and have something to eat." "Is the man of the house home?" They asked. "No", She replied. "He's out."

Then she got up and started walking toward the house. The Other Two also got up and followed him. "Love" got up and started walking toward the house. The Woman went out and invited the Men in."

"Go tell them I am home and invite them in!"

In the evening when Her Husband came home, She told Him what had happened.

"Go out and invite Love to be our guest." Their Daughter was listening from the other corner of the house. She jumped in with Her own suggestion:

"Let us heed Our Daughter's advice," said the Husband which one of Us You want in your home."

Then He added, "Now go in and discuss with Your Husband which one of Us You want in your home."

"How nice!!" he said. "Since that is the case, let us invite 'Wealth'. Let him come and fill our home with wealth!"

His Wife disagreed. "My Dear, why don't we invite 'Success'?"

Their Daughter was listening from the other corner of the house. She jumped in with Her own suggestion: "Would it not be better to invite 'Love'? Our Home will then be filled with love!"

"Let us heed Our Daughter's advice," said the Husband to his Wife.

"Go out and invite Love to be our guest." The Woman went out and asked the Three Old Men, "Which one of you is 'Love'? Please come in and be our guest."

'Love' got up and started walking toward the house. The Old Men replied together: "If You had invited 'Wealth' or 'Success', the Other Two of Us would've stayed out, but since You invited 'Love', wherever He goes, We go with him.

Wherever there is 'Love', there is also 'Wealth' and 'Success'."

FED BY THE LORD

Jesus’ words “This is my body” and “This cup is the new covenant in my blood” were only part of his table blessing. Jesus twice said: “Do this in remembrance of me” (1 Corinthians 11:24, 25).

This is the good news of today’s solemnity. Like the five thousand hungry souls, we are fed by our Lord. This is not food that satisfies for only a short time, until the next meal. It is food that lasts and changes us. It is food for sharing in much the same way as Melchizedek did when he brought bread and wine to the returning Abraham.

As children of God’s reign, we are blessed to be able to receive and share God’s gift. And we do so in the way most appropriate to our state in life—as parents, children, husbands, wives, or religious.

St. Joan of Arc (1412-1431)  May 30
Virgin, Patroness of France and Soldiers

During the time of the 100 Years War, Joan of Arc was a 14-year-old peasant from Domrémy when she began hearing the heavenly voices of Sts. Catherine and Michael, among others. The Saints instructed her on how she was to help France, torn apart both by war with England and civil war. By co-operating with God’s grace, Joan overcame the skepticism of a French army commander, gained the confidence of a council of theologians at Poitiers as well as of the Dauphin (heir to the throne), and led French armies to victory, resulting in the coronation of the Dauphin as King Charles VII. In 1430, after a battle in Compiegne against the Burgundians, allies of the English, she was taken captive and brought to John of Luxembourg. French leaders revealed their ingratitude by doing nothing to help her. She was sold to English leaders, who imprisoned her and subjected her to cross-examination by an unjust tribunal. She was judged as a heretic, and her visions were said to be diabolical. In 1431, at the age of 19, Joan was burned at the stake. In 1456 a commission appointed by Pope Callistus III declared her innocence, and in 1920 she was canonized a Saint.
