PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

HOLY NAME OF JESUS PARISH SAN FRANCISCO is a welcoming multicultural and liturgical community that celebrates our Christian Faith. In the spirit of the "Joy of the Gospel" we work together promoting Catholic values and teachings.

Our parish encourages a strong devotion to our Blessed Mother Mary, who gives us an example of faithful discipleship and a generous stewardship way of life.

FAZtor's Notes

By Fr. Arnold Zamora

It is now September, the start of the "ember" months, the last quarter of the year. This month gives us a sense of normalcy, when everything seems to be back in full swing and back to the regular schedule.

Yet we are thankful for this month as it opens up with a long weekend, with Labor Day this Monday. Somebody said that "Labor Day is a glorious holiday, because your child will be going back to school the next day. It would have been called Independence Day, but that name was already taken."

A wife came home from work the other day and was raging about her boss. She said to her husband, "I'm never going to work for that man again!"

The husband asked her, "Why, what did he say to you?" She said, "You're fired."

Labor Day should give us the opportunity to thank those who are working in the service of people and communities. Let's thank God for the dignity of Labor.

We thank also the people who work for God's church, particularly in our parish, the many volunteers and ministers who are walking the stewardship way of life - sharing their time, talent and treasure. We thank the members of our Parish Pastoral, Finance and Stewardship councils. Our Parish Pastoral Council will officially turn over its new leadership this month with Mr. Paul Roscelli as the new chairperson, taking the place of Mr. Benny Capuyan who will sit as vice chairperson. Roberta Beach will resume her position as secretary of the council. Paul Roscelli is a professor of Economics and Accounting at Cañada College in Redwood City. He is one of our Lectors and a member of our Parish Finance Council. We thank them for their service and ministry and we pray for them as they guide and assist me in doing God's mission in our parish.

Let us also keep in our prayers the victims of Hurricane Harvey. We offer a special prayer for them at all the masses this weekend. We will also be taking up a special collection to support victims and to provide pastoral and rebuilding support to impacted dioceses and communities. We are just waiting for the date for this collection from the Archdiocese.

A certain pastor, Robert Schuller, wrote "God's Four Answers to a Prayer."

Get in tune with God's Spirit; He'll give you a dream. Get in touch with God's people, ask them for help. It will be humbling, and that's good. God's people will make it happen. Then get in time with God's calendar.

*Here are the four answers God can give to a prayer:
When the request is not right, God says, "No!"
When you are not right, God says, "Grow!"
When the time is not right, God says, "Slow!"
When everything is right, God says, "Go!"*

Indeed God answers all our prayers. God's answer is always the best!

RCIA Inquiry Period begins this Wednesday, Sept. 6, 2017, at 7:00-8:30 PM in the meeting room of the Pastoral Center. Please register with Sr. Cristina in the parish office. The Inquiry period is the stage when anyone who wants to know about the Catholic Church attends sessions. For some who have engaged in their own study or attended Mass attentively and regularly, this period might last months. For others who have little background in Catholicism or Christianity in general, more time might be needed. The first session is usually an orientation to the whole RCIA process.

Youth Ministry Team will have a meeting next Sunday, Sept. 10, at 10:45AM in the Mercy Room of the Pastoral Center. The main agenda is planning for the monthly YM event this new Pastoral Year 2017-2018. Please come with "bright exciting" ideas! Thanks very much to Tri Nguyen and Julie Quock and families and all who organized last Sunday's barbeque. Added to it, was making sandwiches for St. Vincent De Paul project for the homeless. Carol Elliot Maloof and SVDP extend their heartfelt gratitude for this generous gesture on behalf of our parish. God's blessings to our young people and their families.

Knitting and Crocheting Group We will revive this creative group, and will connect it to various groups already existing or beginning in our parish. Prayer shawls, scarves, bonnets, blankets, throws, will be given to the sick and elderly, homeless, & cancer patients through Holy Name Cancer Support Group, and others. The group will work and socialize every second Monday of the month, at 2:00-3:00PM in the Pastoral Center. Those who cannot come may work at home, and submit their finished projects to Sr. Cristina. We will begin on Monday, Oct. 9th. Please inform Sr. Cristina if you are interested to join this "fun and creative group". In the spirit of a Stewardship Way of Life, this is an opportunity to share your talents.

New Adult Faith Formation Program Also starting in October is our Fall study on Bishop Robert Barron's Catholicism. New series "The Pivotal Players". We will begin with St. Francis of Assisi - The Reformer. Rebuild my Church! Christ's mission to St. Francis is the perennial task of the Church in every age of its life. But how is that reform and renewal accomplished? The radical simplicity of St. Francis' life demonstrates how the foundations of true love and lasting reform are to be built on the solid rock that is the witness of the saints. The Church celebrates the feast of St. Francis on Oct. 4th. We are blessed to have him as patron saint of our Archdiocese of San Francisco, and have our city named for this great saint.

This six-weeks series will begin on Thursday, October 5, at 7:00-8:30 PM in the meeting room of the Pastoral Center. The whole study will be held from Oct. 5 to Nov. 9th. Sr. Cristina will facilitate.

SEPTEMBER 3, 2017
TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Get behind me, Satan"

At Easter, we celebrated the great victory of Jesus Christ over the annihilating power of death. He emerged a glorious bodysoul. Human nature was redeemed from the ultimate inky blackness of the tomb.

This is a victory in which you and I and every person who has lived, is living or will live, can share. We can share the resurrection life of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Yes, a great victory.

But, in today's Gospel, Jesus Christ tells his followers that he must suffer and be put to death first.

Why?

We have to get one terrible thought out of our heads. It is quite common among some Christians. That is, that the Heavenly Father of Jesus wanted him to suffer such a tortured, agonizing death. What sort of God, a cruel despot, would that be?

God never wills suffering or pain. I certainly could not worship a god who organized the world so that an innocent man would die in such a barbaric fashion.

And yet, relying on Our Lord's own words, we do say: "It was necessary that Jesus suffer and die." What can this mean? I believe this refers to the necessity of divine mission and the necessity of divine love.

It was the Father's will that Jesus remain true to the mission entrusted to him—a mission to preach and embody the gospel of mercy and forgiveness, and justice for the poor and the marginalized. It was inevitable that powerful elites, both religious and political, would find this intolerable and have Jesus eliminated. The way in which Romans did this was to crucify the troublemaker.

Jesus foresaw with great clarity the consequence of remaining true to this mission and warned the disciples that that is the way it would be. There was a dreadful necessity to it all.

Peter could not accept this and protested mightily "God forbid, Lord. This will not be so for you." To which Jesus responded in the most vehement terms: "Get behind me, Satan."

Why such vehemence? I think because there was an even deeper reason why it was necessary that Jesus suffer and die: the necessity of love.

I am good friends with a young couple who have two lovely children, but the young son has had a series of about twenty hospitalizations, many in life threatening circumstances. They love their child without reserve.

What makes this love the most distinctive is that those parents, indeed any parents, would willingly take on the situation of the child, be substituted for the child, would rather suffer and die than see the infant flesh of their flesh suffer or die.

That is the sort of love which God has for you, has for me, has for every human being who has lived or will ever live.

God so loved the world where suffering and wrenching death ravages human beings, that God determined to take on the situation of human beings, to substitute for the whole of human nature, to absorb the suffering and pangs of death, which seem to be the destiny of human nature.

He did this to change that destiny so that we might share in his resurrection victory over the seeming annihilating power of death.

So, Our Lord had to die through the necessity of love, and he foresaw that, given the forces opposing him, this would be by way of crucifixion.

Peter did not want to hear or accept that this would be the necessary path that the Christ would have to tread. The temptation to stray from that path was Satanic: "Get behind me, Satan."

This was a terrible variation of the initial call to Simon Peter: "Come, follow me." Eventually, of course, Peter did follow Jesus the Christ, precisely to be crucified at the foot of the Vatican Hill.

Let us recall Christ's love for us and his persevering in his mission every time we make the sign of the Cross, his Cross: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."
