PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

HOLY NAME OF JESUS PARISH SAN FRANCISCO is a welcoming multicultural and liturgical community that celebrates our Christian Faith. In the spirit of the "Joy of the Gospel" we work together promoting Catholic values and teachings. Our parish encourages a strong devotion to our Blessed Mother Mary, who gives us an example of faithful discipleship and a generous stewardship way of life.

Welcome to Holy Name!

We are a Stewardship Parish! If you worship with us each week or are new to our neighborhood, please register online at:
<http://holynamessf.org/parishregistration>.

You will be on our mailing list and let us know you are willing to support your parish through your time, talent and treasure
— the privilege of every Catholic.

PERSISTENCE

Today's readings are about persistence, passionate persistence. Exodus tells of a battle won despite weariness because Moses, with help from Aaron and Hur, held his hands raised. Timothy asks that same persistence of his community and us. Luke tells of a court case won by a widow, despite the dishonesty of the judge, because she will not leave him alone. The psalm reminds us that God is everywhere, guarding us from harm day and night, coming and going, now and

FAZtor's Notes:
By: Fr. Arnold Zamora

We are back to the busy days and busy weekends with all the activities taking place in our church and in our Masses. Every day we have our Rosary group praying in the chapel at 6 PM. On our past weekends and for another few weeks, our Stewardship Renewal Introductions and Commitments continue. This weekend we will feature our Introduction to the Commitment of Treasure and next week is the actual commitment weekend.

Although we already had a missionary speaker and the collection for Mission Sunday last week, this weekend is the actual World Mission Sunday weekend. On this day, Catholics of the world unite at Mass to recommit themselves to our vocation, through Baptism, to be missionaries. We are called in a special way to stand up for our faith through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and by giving generously to the collection for the Missions. This year's theme is set by Pope Francis for the Extraordinary Missionary Month is Baptized and Sent: The Church of Christ on Mission in the World.

Also this weekend we welcome the members of the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women (ACCW) as they hold their Fall Conference in our Pastoral Center Dining Room. Guest Speakers Vicki Evans taking a Pro-Life issue and Joy Thompson from Oakland Catholic Charities talking on trafficking.

Not too long ago, while I was about to say Mass on the anniversary of 9/11(September 11), I was looking at the ORDO (a small book for Liturgical guides) and it said: Today you may celebrate a Blue Mass. You might wonder what a Blue Mass is. It is a Mass celebrated annually in the Catholic Church for those employed in the "public safety field" (i.e. police officers, firefighters, correctional officers, 911 operators and EMS personnel). The color blue relates to the blue-colored uniforms predominantly used by these services. The Mass is an opportunity for the community to show gratitude to first responders and their families.

Two other "colored" Masses were celebrated this week by our Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone. A "Red Mass" for Legal Professionals at Sts. Peter and Paul Church, San Francisco with Archbishop Bernard Nebda of St. Paul-Minneapolis was celebrated last Thursday. Now, what's a Red Mass? It is a Mass celebrated annually in the Catholic Church for all members of the legal profession, regardless of religious affiliation: judges, lawyers, law school professors, law students, and government officials, marking the opening of the judicial year.

Then Last Friday, a White Mass for Catholic Medical Professionals was celebrated at Mater Dolorosa in South San Francisco. In that Mass, the Archbishop made a special prayer invoking the Holy Spirit to provide guidance and protection on the caring hands of medical professionals. After the Mass, the archbishop also imparted a special apostolic blessing to all medical professionals in attendance.

The Mass always has a color because it always adds color to your Christian life. Value the Mass! Commit to it as you live a stewardship way of life.

Mass is a thanksgiving and "stewardship way of life is a thanksgiving way of life."

Today, let's have another moment of thanksgiving for all that we have and another joy to share the goodness of God with others.

YOUR HEALTH MATTERS!

Habits/Resolutions

You have heard it said, "You can't teach old dogs, new tricks" or "we are creatures of habit", and yes, it's getting to be that time of year, when people are looking at their New Year's Resolutions (making and later breaking them). So before you look at that "Black Friday" sale for a treadmill, new T.V., gym membership, let's take a look at what exactly is a "habit".

"A habit is a routine of behavior that is repeated regularly and tends to occur subconsciously". Examples are: drinking coffee, drinking tea, brushing teeth, getting dressed a certain way and order, biting fingernails, and hair picking , just to name a few. A lot of habits are formed out of stress or boredom.

How to break a "bad habit" and replace it with a "Good one"-

- Choose a substitute for your bad habit
- Cut out as many triggers as possible
- Join forces with someone
- Surround yourself with people who live the way you want to live
- Visualize yourself succeeding
- You don't need to be someone else; you just need to return to your old self!

On average, it takes more than 2 months before a new behavior becomes automatic-66 days to be exact and it can take anywhere from 18 days – 254 days for people to form a new habit.

So please be kind and patient with yourself and always remember, that God loves us no matter what.

To your health,
Angela Testani R.N.
